Israel Successfully Fires Its First Rocket Into Space

JERUSALEM (AP) — Israel fired its first successful rocket into space today, the government announced.

The rocket, a meteorological type, was fired from a secret installation on the Mediterranean. The government said the firing was a "complete success."

The complete government communique announced:

"At 4:41 a.m. today a successful attempt was made to send a meteorological rocket into space from the Mediterranean shore. The rocket was planned, built and fired by a crew of Israeli scientists and technicians. The purposes of the experiment were achieved."

Government spokesmen said the firing was witnessed by Premier David Ben-Gurion and other officials.

The purpose of the experiment was to obtain information on conditions in the stratosphere and ionosphere, the spokesmen said.

The rocket, the "Shavit II" (Meteor II), used a solid propellant fuel developed in Israel.

Shavitt II is multi-staged, but official sources declined to say exactly how many stages it has.

It weighs from 550 to 660 pounds and is capable of reaching a maximum altitude of 50 to 60 miles.

The final stage of the rocket exploded a cloud of sodium at its maximum height, enabling scientists to determine prevailing conditions at that altitude.

Spokesmen said the rocket did not contain radio transmitting equipment.

Israel is the seventh country to send a meteorological rocket into space. The others are the United States, the Soviet Union, France, Britain, Italy and Japan.

None of the Arab countries are believed near a similar stage in technology. Reaction from them is sure to be critical, since they regard themselves at war with Israel.

Moslems Riot Over Algeria Partition Plan

ALGIERS (AP)—Riotous Moslems battled French security forces in many areas of Algeria today in protest against a French threat to partition the country. Military sources said at least 50 persons were killed and several hundred wounded.

The bloody demonstrations erupted during a 24-hour general strike by Arabs and other North Africans who make up almost 10 million of Algeria's 11 million people. Nationalist rebels promoted the strike and the mob actions.

The fighting waned and an uneasy calm settled over the land tonight.

Arabs and other North Africans, some armed with clubs and knives, fought French police and soldiers, who responded with rifle fire and tear gas.

Moslems were enraged at the idea that they might be relegated to the arid interior of this North African territory while the million European settlers took over all the rich and fertile ocast.

The strikers were demonstrating loyalty to the regime of rebel Premier Ferhat Abbas and protesting President Charles de Gaulle's threat to partition the North African territory.

As the demonstrations swelled, it appeared certain the death toll would rise to dim the prospect of negotiations between the rebels and the French, which a French spokesman said had been tentatively scheduled to resume next Monday.

Two thousand Moslems clashed with police at Telergma, in eastern Algeria, site of the biggest French air base in Algeria. At Miliana, in the central part of the country, some 300 young men, women and children, led by rebel guerrillas in uniform, rushed riot forces who opened fire on them. Five persons, including a French policeman, were reported killed in the two clashes.

One Moslem was reported killed at Castiglione, about 30 miles west of Algiers, when several hundred armed with clubs and knives tried to charge riot police and troops.

Tiny Car Turns Over, Drives Away

Two San Francisco men were in a Volkswagen that rolled over on Highway 101 near Novato last evening, and by the time the California Highway Patrol arrived they had "tied the car together" and were fleeing.

Patrolman Gerald L. Walkup of Novato caught up with them, booked one on a charge of drunken driven and took the other to Novato Hospital, where today he was reported in good condition with cuts on scalp and face.

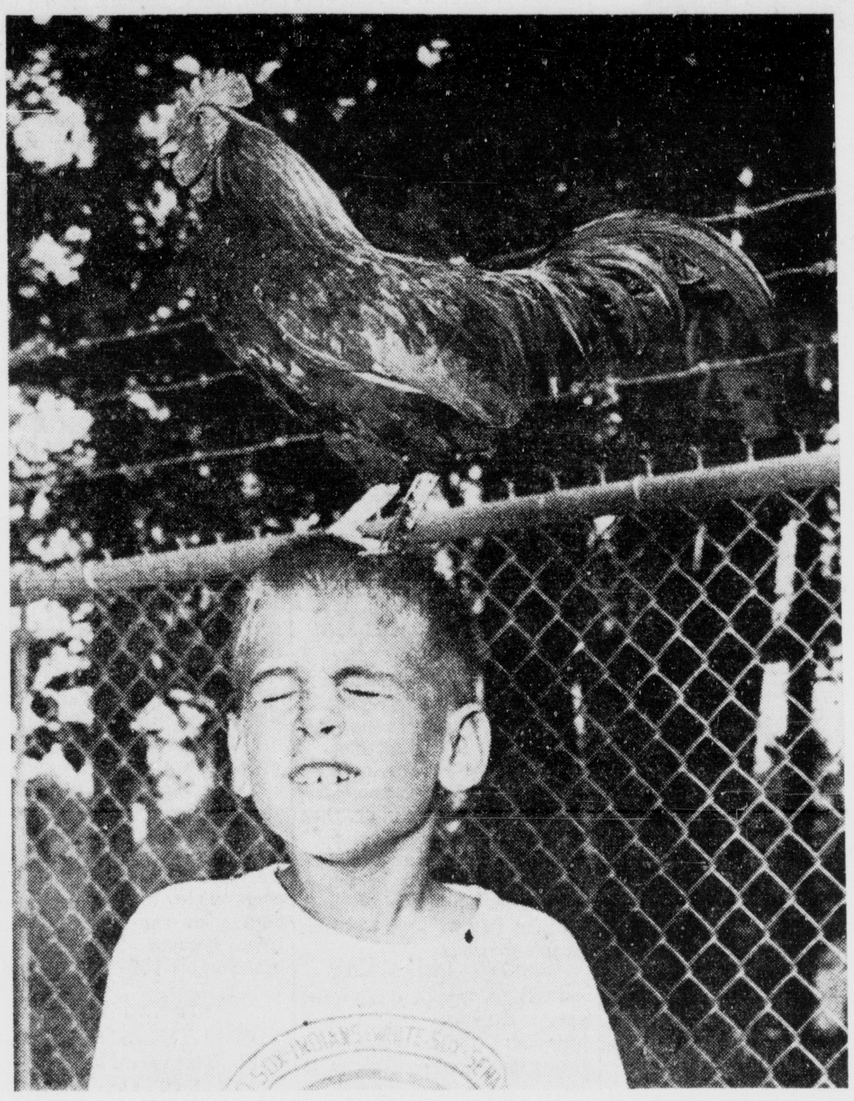
Patrol Capt. Theodore F. Parnow said the series of events apparently went like this:

Ronald Vernon, 28, an employee of the State Franchise Tax Board in San Francisco, and Robert Beale, 30, were headed south on the highway about four miles north of Novato. Vernon was driving. The car flipped over and rolled at least one full turn down the highway. Both sides and the top were damaged. The front windshield was popped out and a door sprung.

Beale, who was uninjured, apparently gave Vernon first aid for a cut head and face. Then he tied the car's door shut with rope, got in the driver's seat and headed south again.

The patrol car got to the scene about 7:30 p.m., just as the damaged Volkswagen sped away. Walkup gave chase with siren and red light and stopped the fleeing car a mile down the road.

This time Beale was driving. He was booked into the county jail and Vernon was taken to the hospital.



COULD BE LARRY'S A LITTLE CHICKEN

Eight-year-old Larry Pocock doesn't seem to like the feeling of a rooster roosting on his noggin. But it's a popular perch for Pete, a Brown Leghorn pet at the Lake Erie Junior Museum in Bay Village, Ohio, a suburb of Cleveland. Pete does that to all the visitors. Police Surmise Escapee May Have Stolen Car

San Quentin Prison escapee David G. Wills, 35, who was reportedly seen in San Rafael and Santa Venetia Monday and yesterday, may have fled the county in a stolen car.

San Rafael Police Chief Charles J. Chiesa said today that a car is reported missing from the Ames Ford Sales since Monday, the day of the escape. The car is a 1954 Plymouth four-door, light blue over gray, with license number BLK 368.

Ames Ford Sales is the area where Police Sgt. Thomas Stephenson reported he saw a man answering the convict's description Monday morning.

Wills is a child molester who was sent to prison from Oakland last May 12. He vanished from the prison textile mill about 4 a.m. Monday. Prison officials said Wills must have scaled a 20-foot wall to gain his freedom.

Wills is 6 feet 2 inches, 165 pounds, has blue eyes, light brown hair and wore blue denims and a dark jacket at the time of escape. He was working at the textile mill on the midnight to 8 a.m. shift.

Employment, Jobless Ranks Both Increase

WASHINGTON (AP)—Employment rose to a record high in June, but because of a great surge of teen-agers into the labor market unemployment also increased sharply.

The Labor Department reported today that total employment rose by 1.9 million to 68.7 million from mid-May to mid-June. The latter figure was a few thousand larger than the previous employment records set in June and July of 1960.

Unemployment increased by 800,000 to 5.6 million. The department said this was about the expected increase for this time of year.

It is possible for employment and joblessness to increase simultaneously because of changes in the total number of persons in the labor force. This force is defined as persons at work plus persons looking for work.

The outpouring of youngsters from schools hunting temporary or permanent jobs is an annual problem in the job market—but it is greater than ever this year.

Nikita Seeks Big 4 Summit Conference

LONDON (UPI)—High communist diplomats indicated today that Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev would like a Big Four summit conference late this year to discuss the Berlin crisis at top level before the East or West make final decisions.

The diplomats said the Soviet leader wants to have a round of talks with the Western leaders by November or early December.

The Soviets were reported to hold that since Berlin and Germany are four-power responsibilities, Khrushchev should meet in conference with President John F. Kennedy, British Prime Minister Harold MacMillan and French President Charles de Gaulle.

RADIO MOSCOW GOOFS, 'ANCIENT HISTORY' BROADCAST AS NEWS

LONDON (UPI)—Someone at Moscow Radio goofed today.

The radio broadcast a report that Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev arrived in Finland to celebrate President Urho Kekkonen's 60th birthday.

In fact, Kekkonen was 60 last Sept. 3 and Khrushchev did visit Finland at that time.

British Broadcasting Corp. personnel who monitored the broadcast said it also carried other items—a condemnation of United Nations Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold and a story on the Congo—which pertained to events that happened last year.

BBC officials suspected that an absent-minded technician had used a tape recording from last year's broadcasts. The broadcast was aired twice in English.

Only Minor Mishaps Mar Marin's Fourth

Marin County observed a "very quiet" Fourth of July yesterday, with almost all noise and sparks concentrated at the scheduled "big shoot" in Corte Madera last night.

Elsewhere in the county, several firecrackers exploded harmlessly, and a candy machine was blown to bits in San Rafael. But otherwise, sheriff's deputies and police departments reported no fireworks' injuries or damages.

The candy machine was located in front of Charlie's Market at Fourth and G Streets. Officer Wade R. Powell spotted debris on the sidewalk about 8:45 last night and discovered gum, charms, pennies and parts of the machine scattered 15 feet in all directions.

Three boys helped Officer Powell pick up the pennies, which were turned over to Mrs. Ida Zapelli, wife of the market owner.

A 10-year-old boy in the area said he noticed two boys, about 14 to 16 years old, run from the candy machine just before the explosion.

Officer Powell said he found powder residue on some of the scattered pennies and a paper hull from a firecracker lodged in the broken machine.

Police Chief Charles J. Chiesa reported only two other firecracker incidents in San Rafael. At 5:30 p.m. juveniles threw an explosive near the Terra Linda High School gymnasium. At 11:24 p.m., residents reported that fire crackers were being ignited in the hills near 70 East Crescent Drive.

Last night about 10 o'clock, Ola Reimer of 660 Woodbine Drive, Terra Linda, heard firecrackers popping near her home and complained to the sheriff's office.

Mrs. Robert R. Stanfield of 256 Calle De La Selva, Loma Verde, complained that her family could not sleep because of exploding firecrackers near her home about 12:30 a.m. today.

Sheriff's deputies went looking for the culprits in each instance, but those responsible had disappeared.

Police Chief Raymond R. Buchignani said that the ban on fireworks sale in Marin probably contributed to the quiet holiday. Several San Anselmans bought fireworks in Petaluma and sought permission to fire them in San Anselmo. "I told them to go back to Petaluma and fire them up there," said Chief Buchignani.

Auto Stuck, Wheels Spin, Grass Ignited

The spinning wheels of a stuck automobile started a four-acre grass fire in San Anselmo late yesterday, according to Asst. Fire Chief Frank Sousa.

Shortly before 5 p.m., Joe DeSilva of 4 Meadow Avenue, San Rafael, tried to turn his car around on a fire trail on a hilltop north of San Francisco Boulevard. One wheel went off the trail. As DeSilva gunned the motor, the wheel spun in the dry grass.

The friction set the grass ablaze.

The fire ran along the ridge between Sleepy Hollow and Mount Tamalpais Cemetery, burning four acres of grass and destroying DeSilva's car. He abandoned the vehicle and fled to safety as the flames broke out.

Fifteen San Anselmo firemen with two engines, and eight Marin County firemen with three vehicles battled the blaze for about two hours, Sousa said.

Were it not that fire trails in the area were widened to about 20 feet this year, the blaze "might have got away from us," the San Anselmo assistant chief said.

Fair Forecast For Five Days

Holiday Deaths Set Record For Nation

By UNITED PRESS INTERNATIONAL

Americans rewrote the chronicles of holiday slaughter during the Independence Day weekend, a tabulation of accidental deaths showed today.

Never before were there so many accidental deaths of all types over a holiday. Never before was the highway toll for a summer holiday so great.

The Independence weekend traffic toll of 519, was 28 more than the record for a summer holiday set during the July 4 holiday of 1950.

The over-all accidental death toll of 892 eclipsed the 883 figure of the notorious "Black Christmas" of 1956.

The 232 drownings were third highest for a summer holiday. It was surpassed only by the July 4 holiday for 1955, when 251 persons lost their lives, and the Fourth of July of 1949, when 245 drownings were reported.

United Press International also counted 141 other violent deaths over the holiday.

The breakdown:

Traffic, 519; drownings, 232; planes, 9; fireworks, 3; miscellaneous, 129, for a total of 892.

California's 47 traffic fatalities represented nearly 9 per cent of the nation's total. Texas had 33 highway victims and there were 28 in Ohio, 24 in New York and 21 in Florida. Illinois counted 18 traffic deaths and there were 17 each in Alabama and Missouri, 16 each in North and South Carolina, and 15 in Minnesota.

California and Michigan each recorded 15 drownings. Pennsylvania had 14, Texas 13, New Jersey 12 and Virginia 10.

The traffic toll was 69 more than the National Safety Council's advance estimate for the 102-hour holiday period, which began at 6 p.m. Friday and continued through Tuesday midnight. However, the toll fell below the Safety Council's mid-holiday revised estimate of 550 traffic deaths, due to a dramatic change of pace in the final 12 hours.

George C. Stewart, executive vice president of the National Safety Council, called the holiday "one of the most tragic weekends in our history."

Kennedy Returns

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy flew back today from a holiday weekend at his Cape Cod home to pick up on a full-time basis the labors he couldn't completely drop even for the Fourth of July.

Striking Plumbers Negotiate

PALO ALTO (AP) — A strike, begun Saturday, of approximately 1,900 plumbers in San Mateo, Santa Clara and San Benito counties prompted a negotiation meeting here today.

At issue were wages and priorities involved in moving a plumber from one county to another.

C. W. Stinnett, executive manager of the Association of Plumbing, Piping and Air Conditioning Contractors of Santa Clara County, called wages the big stumbling block. He said the plumbers were asking $5.43 an hour in wages and fringe benefits as against the current rate of $4.91 and employers had offered $5.03. Stinnett called the union wage demands "inflationary."

But George Wildhagen, business manager of Local 393 of the Plumbers and Steamfitters' Union said the wage issue could be ironed out easily when other matters are settled. Wildhagen asserted the employers want freedom to move plumbers from one county to another whereas the union men say priority must be given in any county to members within that county.

Castro Blames U.S. For Cuba Food Shortage In TV Talk

COMBINED UPI & AP

HAVANA — Premier Fidel Castro blamed the United State government today for growing food shortages in Cuba, but he sent an Independence Day greeting to the "American People."

He said his revolutionary regime plans an industrialization program with help from the communist nations which will make President John F. Kennedy's aid program for Latin America look like "a joke."

In a wide-ranging, three-hour television-radio appearance, Castro also blamed the Americans for the collapse of the tractors-for-prisoners negotiations charging that the United States was afraid the tractors would aid Cuba's "advancing" agrarian reform.

His talk, which grew out of questions from a panel, began last night and ended early this morning. Most of his cabinet ministers were in the studio.

In his greeting to the American people, he said:

"We salute first of all the Committee for Fair Play for Cuba. We also salute the Freedom Riders for their courage in facing the racists of the United States, and we salute the maritime workers who struck against salaries of misery and against Mr. Kennedy who just applied the Taft-Hartley low to them. Mr. Kennedy was characterized in the Senate for fighting this law, and now he applies it. We send greetings to the American working class, to the intellectuals, to the Negroes, to the students."

Castro claimed the United States is trying to force Cubans to go hungry by embargoing food exports to Cuba.

And he again accused the United States economic aggression and said the Soviet Union had offered Cuba 10,000 tons of lard to make up for a U.S. shipment of 12 carloads that was stopped last week.

Castro did not explain the circumstances of the embargo on the lard shipment. A Florida court ordered the shipment seized to help satisfy a $429,000 bill the Cuban government tourist agency owes a Miami advertising agency.

Castro called the lard seizure the latest act of "imperialist aggression" and announced Cubans would have to cut down on fats until production can replace U.S. imports. Cuba has depended on the United States for most of its lard, but Castro said Cuba would buy no more U.S. lard, imports of which, he said, had run to 20 million dollars a year.

The prime minister announced that Cubans, who normally consume about 40 pounds of fats per person annually, would be rationed one pound of oil and one pound of lard a month.

Castro also complained about the seizure of a Cuban twin-engine passenger airplane in Miami Monday. The plane, hijacked in flight by some of its passengers, was seized when it landed to be applied toward the Miami advertising firm's judgment. Three Cuban crop-dusting planes that landed in the Florida keys also were seized for the same reason.

Castro termed Adlai Stevenson's recent tour of South America as President John F. Kennedy's special envoy a vain effort to build up an aggressive anti-Cuban front.

Vandals Break School Window

Vandals broke a window at Sun Valley School in San Rafael sometime yesterday, but a piano which stood at the window apparently blocked entry, San Rafael reported today.

Officer Richard Camper spotted the damaged window about 10:20 a.m. yesterday.

Marion Davies III

HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—The condition of former actress Marion Davies remained satisfactory today at Cedars of Lebanon hospital.

Miss Davies, 61, has been hospitalized since May and later underwent surgery for osteomyelitis of the jaw. Her general condition is unchanged, the hospital said today. She suffered a setback about three weeks ago when she fell and broke a bone in her left leg.

11 Hurt In Rail Crash

Guerrillas Training For Castro Fight

By LEON DANIEL

MIAMI (UPI)—Joseph Patrick Hemming, who wears an Australian bush hat and stands six feet, five inches, is a soldier of fortune who looks like one.

Hemming, a native of Los Angeles, believes his band of guerrillas now training in South Florida will help in the ultimate downfall of Fidel Castro's Cuban regime.

The bearded giant, who says he is 24, prefers to use the name "Jerry Patrick" in commanding the Intercontinental Penetration Force (Interpen). The gang of guerrilas hopes to become useful in boat raids, reconnaissance and setting up underground activity within Cuba.

Hemming says he was a U. S. Marine for six years, and also was a paratroop instructor with Castro's rebel army in 1958, before defecting.

He says he uses the name Jerry Patrick rather than Hemming "because Latin Americans have trouble pronouncing Hemming."

The Interpen force here and in the Everglades consists of 39 men, many of them former members of the Army Special Forces, Marine reconnaissance groups, and Army Paratroops.

Interpen is the paratroop unit of the Anti-Communist International Brigade headed by Frank Fiorini, who fought with Castro but later defected.

Fiorni claims to have underwater demolition teams training in California, Virginia and New York.

Patrick and his troops live in a boarding house in a middle class Miami neighborhood. On a dresser beside his Army-style cot are the paperback novels entitled, "They Died With Their Boots On," and "Smoke in the Valley."

Six of the 180 paratroopers who participated in the ill-fated Bay of Pigs invasion last April took part in a parachute exercise near Fort Lauderdale this past weekend.

Patrick says his Interpen group is supported by small contributions from sympathizers and that they also get money by selling their blood.

"We get $7 a pint, $10 if we're lucky," he said.

Typical of the Interpen troops is 31-year-old Joe Garman of Bowling Green, Ky., who attended Western Kentucky State Teachers College briefly. Asked why he joined Interpen, Garman said he "just liked to soldier."

Fiorini claims that an entire American Legion chapter in a North Florida city has offered to join the brigade.

WORLD NEWS IN BRIEF

Earldom For Eden

LONDON (UPI)—Queen Elizabest II has conferred an earldom on Sir Anthony Eden, it was officially announced today.

Sir Anthony, who was foreign minister to Prime Minister Sir Winston Churchill, was prime minister of Britain until shortly after the 1956 Suez crisis.

He resigned for "health" reasons, and has played no active part in British politics since that time.

Vacation Costs Rise

CHICAGO (UPI) — Lawmakers in 18 states have increased taxes that affect vacationers during the past year, Commerce Clearing House said today.

Tourists will be hit hardest in buying cigarettes. Nevada boosted its cigarette tax by 4 cents a pack and 15 states raised the levy 1 to 3 cents.

New Jersey, Pennsylvania and Washington raised gasoline taxes while Connecticut, Illinois, Michigan, Utah and West Virginia upped their general sales taxes by 1 per cent on purchases over $1.

Betsy's Flag Stolen

PHILADELPHIA (UPI) — A thief yesterday stole the American flag from the grave of Betsy Ross, known as the maker of the nation's first flag.

George Wersdefver, caretaker of Mount Moriah cemetery, substituted another flag then reported the theft to police.

Betsy Ross' grave is one of the few locations over which the flag may be flown continuously in fair or foul weather.

Geneva Talks Lag

GENEVA (UPI)—A sharp word battle between the United States and Chinese communist delegations appeared today to doom any chance of success for the 14-nation conference on Laos.

East and West were far apart on how the conference should proceed and so many of the top communist policy makers have left Geneva that there was little chance subordinates left behind would be able to make any changes in position.

Ship Dedicated

BALTIMORE (AP) — The U.S. frigate Constellation, described by Undersecretary of the Navy Paul B. Fay Jr. as "older than the Navy itself," was dedicated as a permanent monument.

The ship, bedecked with flags, launched here in 1797 as the first ship commissioned by the U.S. Navy, was returned to its home port for the last time in 1958.

The Constellation has been rebuilt, renovated and repaired many times since its launching.

Bozo Has Cancer

HOUSTON, Tex. (UPI) — Bozo the clown is fighting for his life today because he neglected to take the advice he gave to help save his millions of little pardners and buddies.

He has cancer of the bone and lungs. Doctors say he will probably never clown in the big time again.

It is a grim twist of fate that made Bozo exchange his grease paint and red and blue full-length costume with a ruffle for a hospital gown.

For the past few years he has been doing charity performances, including many for the American Cancer Society. On these and on many of his television shows, he would conclude by saying:

"Bye, bye, and be sure to have your doctor check you for cancer."

Bozo's real name is Edwin Cooper. He was born at Arlington, Tex., on July 16, 1920, and now makes his home in Houston.

Surgery For Oak

NEW BRUNSWICK, N.J. (UPI) —Rutgers University has agreed to let a tree surgeon treat its famed "Kilmer oak" in an effort to lengthen its life.

The university's College of Agriculture disclosed yesterday it had accepted the offer of Edward Chorpenning to prune and treat the tree at no charge to the school.

The "Kilmer oak" is said to have inspired poet Joyce Kilmer to write his well-known poem "Trees." Lately there has been some concern about the tree, because some of its branches are bare.

Anti-Red Drive

SEOUL, South Korea (AP)—South Korea's military rulers pressed their anti-Communist campaign with new vigor today, charging a former law school dean, his wife and three others with being Communist spies.

The military junta leveled the spy charges, which carry a maximum penalty of death, after accusing John M. Chang, former premier ousted in the May 16 coup, and 11 of his associates, of collaborating with the Communists. All are being held.

The junta also ordered stiff new penalties for sympathizing or trafficking with the Communists.

Effort Bogs

LEOPOLDVILLE, The Congo (AP)—The drive to reconvene the Congolese Parliament was bogged down today in feuds and second thoughts despite insistent U.N. attempts to restore Democratic government in the year-old republic.

Maneuvering for influence and position among Leopoldville politicians threatened to kill the momentum built up last month wher President Joseph Kasavubu announced the reopening of the national legislature after over nine months of non-parliamentary government.

Kasavubu, Premier Joseph Ileo and his ministers were plagued by growing fears that voting in the Parliament might go against them.

Castro Horrible

CHEPACHET, R.I. (AP)—Fidel Castro was worth a prize here yesterday.

A float depicting the Cuban strongman's "tractors for prisoners" deal won first place in the town's 34th annual horribles parade.

Invite Inspection

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United Nations should be invited to monitor and inspect a limited program of U.S. underground nuclear tests for peaceful purposes, Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey (D-Minn.) suggested today.

He also proposed turning over to the United Nations the data and results of such tests.

'Copter Search

PORTERVILLE (AP) — Search for a helicopter missing since Saturday with three men spotting fires in the Sequoia National Forest widened today to the eastern slope of the Sierra.

No trace of the ship and its occupants has been found in extensive search of the Kennedy Meadows area.

Swimmers Disappointed

Swimmers who went to the San Rafael High School pool for a dip after 5:30 p.m. yesterday were disappointed because the pool closed earlier than scheduled.

Normally, on Tuesdays and Thursdays, the plunge is open until 8 p.m. However, yesterday only one person was in the pool at 5 p.m., so the pool manager decided to close up shop at 5:30, Recreation Supervisor Dennis Sullivan reported.

Regular pool hours at the San Rafael High School plunge are as follows:

Monday, Wednesday and Friday—1 to 6 p.m. Tuesday and Thursday—1 to 8 p.m. Tuesday and Thursday nights from 6 to 8 are free family swim nights. Children must be accompanied by parents to get in free during those two hours.

Weekend hours are 1 to 5 p.m., both Saturday and Sunday.

Disaster Preparedness

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — The state disaster office announced today it is conducting a statewide survey of disaster preparedness in California schools.

Allan K. Jonas, disaster office director, said questionnaires have been mailed to all schools. He said the answers will enable the disaster office and the State Department of Education to provide further guidance on disaster planning to schools.

THE FLAG FLIES HIGH

While a workman was busy yesterday putting a cross atop the First Baptist Church in Nashville, Tenn., the American flag fluttered from the 190-foot crane above his head. Members of the rigging crew decided since they had to work on Independence Day they should fly the flag. (AP Wirephoto)

THIRD TRY

Robards, Bacall Wed In Mexico

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — The third country proved the charm for actress Lauren Bacall and actor Jason Robards Jr.

Following futile attempts at matrimony in Vienna, Austria, and Las Vegas, Nev., Robards and Miss Bacall, the widow of Academy Award winner Humphrey Bogart, were married yesterday in Ensenada, Mexico.

The newlyweds returned last night to Hollywood, where Robards was to report today for continued work on his latest movie, "Tender is the Night."

Robards, 39, tried to marry Miss Bacall, 36, two weeks ago in Vienna, but they were turned down when they tried to obtain a license. Vienna authorities said it was because Robards' Mexico divorce from his previous wife was invalid, but representatives of the couple said it was because officials did not want Vienna to become a Hollywood marriage center.

The couple also was refused a license in Las Vegas last Saturday night because of Robards' "quickie" divorce. Robards signed an affidavit stating he was divorced from his wife, Rachel, on May 22, 1961.

His wife also filed a divorce suit in New York state in October of last year, charging him with adultery with Miss Bacall.

Miss Bacall, who has starred in such movies as "Key Largo," "To Have and Have Not" and "How to Marry a Millionaire," has two children by Bogart, Stephen, 13, and Leslie, 9. She had a romance with Frank Sinatra after her husband's death.

Robards, son of a famous character actor, is a veteran Broadway performer. His stage credits include "Long Day's Journey Into Night."

Family Tells Of Living With Wanted Murderer

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—He was on the FBI's most wanted list, for a cruel murder. But to Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bloom the fugitive captured in their home "was just like one of the family. Trusted like a brother."

Still shocked that the odd-jobs man they took to their hearts was not the person he represented himself to be, the Blooms nevertheless promised yesterday to aid him.

The man they knew as Bryan Benton was, in fact, Kenneth Helleck Sharp, 29, sought since 1952 on a charge that he shot and killed a 75-year-old service station attendant during a holdup in Chicago.

When the FBI took Sharp into custody Monday, Bloom said, he was babysitting for the three Bloom children, boys aged 2, 4 and 8. "He was just like one of the family. The kids miss him already."

The FBI said Sharp, considered possibly deranged, had been in Philadelphia for five years. He worked for three years as a pin boy in a bowling alley Bloom manages.

Laid off when the alley was converted to automatic pinsetters, Sharp went to work in a service station Bloom operated. "I trusted him like a brother," Bloom said. "Some weekends there would be $400 at the station. We never missed a thing."

The station closed six months ago and Sharp moved in with the Blooms while working at odd jobs.

"The kids loved him immediately. He would take them swimming on hot days. He would go with us to the shore," and, said Mrs. Bloom, he "would do the Friday shopping for me."

Bloom said agents came to the bowling alley Monday and asked him to accompany them to the home.

"They asked who he was and he asked 'Who am I supposed to be?' "

The agents looked at his arm and "Sharp" was tattooed on it.

"We are going to Chicago as witnesses. I'm ready to sell my house if it will do him any good," Bloom said.

Look At Point Reyes

Point Reyes is mentioned in the July 18 issue of Look magazine, which is now on the newsstands, in an article titled "A Quarter Century, Its Retreats." Point Reyes is used as an example of some of the natural beauty of the nation which should be protected from subdivision. The author is Edwards Weeks, editor of the Atlantic Monthly.

Surprise Welcome After 40 Years

BALTIMORE (AP) — For Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Williams of Baltimore, it was their first visit to Milwaukee since they had lived in the Wisconsin city 40 years ago.

So they were more than a little surprised when they found this handwritten note under the windshield wiper of their car:

"It's good to have you back again in Milwaukee."

The mystery was solved later. They found out that Rudolph Laub, a Milwaukee relative who knew their car from his Baltimore visits, spotted it as he drove past and planted the note.

Substitute Causes Substitute Mixup

ROCHESTER, N. Y. (AP)—A substitute cleaning woman fouled up the board of Education's substitute teacher system.

A recording device in the board's offices receives calls from elementary school principals, asking for substitute teachers. A secretary plays back the requests when she arrives in the morning, then calls the available substitutes.

The tape was blank two mornings in a row. The cleaning woman thought the machine had been left on by mistake after the office was closed. She turned it off.

NO PATERNAL DISPUTE

Jessel, Divorcee Seem Mad About (Not At) Each Other

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Comedian Georgie Jessel, 63, and the 27-year-old woman who has filed a paternity suit against him said yesterday they are not mad at each other.

Divorcee Joan Tyler's suit was disclosed Monday and asked $2,050 medical care, $750 monthly during the pregnancy period and $950 monthly after the baby is born.

"Joan is a nice girl and I believe we can work this out amicably," said Jessel. "I surely hope so. I don't have much money, but I am willing to help her."

"George and I are not mad at each other," Miss Tyler said. "We are not going to fight this thing out tooth and nail. We have discussed it. We have discussed marriage.

"But George tells me he may want to sell his home here and live in Europe. I don't want to live there. I am sure George won't deny that we have had a love affair."

She said some of the language used in her suit was "just a matter of legal procedure."

Hold That Hatchet

WYNNEWOOD, Okla. (AP)—Tommy Lee Johnson bought 10 hens, planned to dress them and stack them away in the freezer. But his wife found six eggs in the pen where the fowls were kept overnight. The hens got a stay of execution.

That Alley Cat, Herman, Is Making News Again

ALAMEDA (AP)—Herman, the court-restricted alley cat, is going to Ohio.

Mrs. Russell Bowler said today Herman will be flown next month to appear in the Ohio State Fair Aug. 23-Sept. 1.

It will be lovelorn Herman's first time outside the Bowler house and yard since he returned from an appearance at the Ohio State Persian Cat Show in January, Mrs. Bowler said.

The philandering feline was locked up by Superior Court order last November because of his alleged courting of a neighbor's pedigreed cats.

Herman is legally free to go any place except into the yard where Mrs. J. Howard Cook keeps her cats, which is just where Herman used to head.

Herman's wayward life in California resulted in Mrs. Cook and Mrs. Bowling suing each other for damages. The case is pending.

Mrs. Cook blames Herman for some unpedigreed kittens her cat had.

Mrs. Bowler says the female cats lured Herman.

Fat Can Make Big Difference

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Lean beef and lean pork have the same taste and aroma after heating, and appear to be identical chemically, and Extension Service nutritionist at Ohio State University says. But the fatty portions make the difference.

Miss Pauline Gruner, the nutritionist, said studies made by the Agricultural Research Service indicate the fat has the distinctive taste and aromas associated with each kind of meat.

A Young Lad Learns About Birds And Bees

BALTIMORE (AP) — Six-year-old David Neidert always called his cocker spaniel "Peter" until the day he took the dog to a beauty parlor wtih his mother, Mrs. Evelyn Neidert.

That was the day David learned the dog's name was technically inaccurate. "Stop it, Peter!" the boy said to the dog, as Peter whelped her first litter of two puppies in public.

Small Interruption To Her Education

AKRON, Ohio (AP)— Because of Infant Konzen, the female Dr. Konzen is slightly behind the male Dr. Konzen in postgraduate work at Akron City Hospital.

Dr. John Konzen and his wife, Dr. Claudette Konzen, planned when they were graduated from medical school at the University of Ottawa, Canada, to complete postgraduate work together.

But Mrs. Konzen had to take time out. Their baby arrived last August.

Hollow Promise

ABERDEEN, Md. (AP)—A sign in an open field along U.S. 40 near this Maryland town still says construction on a shopping center will begin in 1958.

Home On Vacation In Train Boxcar

TRINIDAD, Colo. (AP) — The railway station agent here got a call from someone who wanted to know when the next southbound train would leave town. The agent told him.

Next question from the caller:

"Will it have some empty boxcars?"

"Yes," the agent replied.

"Thanks for the information," said the caller. "Several of us are heading home on vacation and we've made it okay this far."

ELDEST SON—John Hemingway, the late author's eldest son, is shown as he carried clothes for his father's body. It was John who selected the casket. (UPI Telephoto)

AUTHOR'S KIN — John Hemingway's wife, Puck, and daughters Muffit, 11, and Margot, 6, waited yesterday at Hailey Airport near Sun Valley, Idaho, for the arrival of other members of the family. John and his family live in Mill Valley. (AP Wirephoto)

Hemingway Rites Planned For Tomorrow

KETCHUM, Idaho (UPI)—Ernest Hemingway will be buried tomorrow if his son arrives from Africa by then, members of the author's family said today.

The son, Patrick, was on a hunting safari in Africa when the 61-year-old author shot himself to death in his Ketchum home Sunday. Funeral services were delayed so the son could attend.

A family spokesman said today that the burial was tentatively set for 10:30 a.m. tomorrow pending Patrick's arrival. His exact whereabouts were not known, the spokesman said.

GRAVE DUG

A grave for the Pulitzer and Nobel prize-winning author was dug yesterday in Ketchum Cemetery. His body will lie alongside that of Taylor (Bear Tracks) Williams, hunting and fishing guide who was Hemingway's frequent companion for 20 years prior to his death in 1959.

There still was no official decision—and probably never will be—as to whether death of the famed writer from the double blast of a 12-gauge shotgun was an accident or suicide.

Ray McGoldrick, proprietor of the funeral home, said Hemingway would be dressed casually in a sport coat and slacks. The services will be attended only by the writer's fourth wife, Mary, his three sons, other relatives and close friends.

RED ROSES

Sun Valley florist Rollie Law said Hemingway's family had ordered a casket cover of red roses, but asked that friends send donations to charity rather than flowers.

The author's body lies in a funeral home at Hailey, Idaho, about 12 miles from Ketchum. A hearse will return it to Ketchum for the funeral, but there will be no procession.

The Rev. Robert J. Waldemann, Catholic pastor of St. Charles Church in Hailey and of Our Lady of the Snows in Ketchum, will preside at the simple graveside services. However, it will not be a formal Catholic service.

Hemingway's eldest son, John, said his father "at one time" was a Catholic and that his second wife, Pauline Pfeiffer, was Catholic. Asked whether his father was a Catholic at the time he died, John replied, "He actually was not."

Among those arriving yesterday for the funeral were Hemingway's son, Gregory, of Miami, Fla.; the author's brother, Leichester Hemingway, also of Miami; Mrs. Marcelline Hemingway Sanford, Grosse Point, Mich., a sister; Mr. and Mrs. William Horne, Barrington, Ill.; Charles Thompson, Key West, Fla.; and Forrest Macmullen, Las Vegas, Nev.

John Hemingway of Mill Valley, Calif., and two other sisters, Mrs. Ernest Miller of Petoskey, Mich., and Mrs. Ursula Jepson of Honolulu, arrived earlier this week.

Salesman Burns Eye

Chester C. Kyle, 33, of 11 William Avenue, Corte Madera, a salesman, was treated at Marin General Hospital yesterday for a slight chemical burn of his left eye suffered when he splashed himself with an oven cleaner.

Dino Esposti Wins Apprentice Contest

Dino Esposti of Mill Valley won third place at the annual statewide California Plumbers and Pipefitters Apprentice Training Contest held in San Luis Obispo last month.

Esposti, who lives at 236 Elm Avenue, represented Marin, Sonoma, Mendocino and San Francisco counties in the statewide competition among fifth-year apprentices.

Only other Marin entry in the statewide contest was James P. Salinas of 5 Gilbert Street, San Rafael. Salinas competed in the fourth-year apprentice category.

Both Esposti and Salinas won the right to compete in the state finals by winning the local four-county contest held in San Francisco last March.

Bolinas Legion Post

The American Legion's Bolinas Bay Post will meet at 8 p.m. next Tuesday in the Bolinas Community Center. It did not meet last night because of the holiday.

November Election Revisited

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President John F. Kennedy scored his razor-thin election victory over Richard M. Nixon because of perfectionist planning and a weakness in Nixon's overall strategy, according to a book appearing today in bookstores.

The volume, entitled "The Making of the President" (New York: Athenum, $6.95), was written by Theodore H. White, novelist and former foreign correspondent.

White, who explores the campaign from strategy conferences in 1959 through the Nov. 8 voting, recites many "ifs" which might have reversed the outcome. But he concludes that these were mere "froth and foam" on the Kennedy and Nixon strategies.

Accidents befell both sides, White says. But the Nixon strategy—or lack of it—made the Republicans more vulnerable, he concludes.

He says the major elements in the Kennedy strategy included concentration on northeastern industrial states, emphasis on civil rights and cultivation of suburban voters. The South was left to runningmate Lyndon B. Johnson.

White suggests Nixon might have won the election if he had handled the civil rights issue differently.

He says the former vice president took a relatively liberal civil rights stand at the Republican Convention and then let the issue become blurred in an effort to win the South.

White believes that Nixon either should have struck boldly for the South or campaigned for the northern Negro vote. He says that Nixon lost both by trying to win both.

"This is one of Nixon's characteristic and fatal flaws—that he presents too often a split image," the author says.

Drunk Driver Gets Probation

Earl Raymond Carey, 41, of Sharp Park, was on six months probation today on conviction of drunken driving in Novato June 22.

Municipal Judge Harold J. Haley also fined Carey $184 Friday and directed that for 90 days he not do any driving except between the hours of 7 a.m. to 9 p.m. for essential family business or to and from work.

Los Angeles Firm Has Dispute With Mill Valley

Municipal Data Processing, Inc. of Los Angeles has proposed that its contract for servicing Mill Valley assessment bonds be terminated because City Treasurer William G. Rutherford has never supplied it with necessary collection information.

This was disclosed today by City Manager A. E. Almcrants, who said the matter would be discussed at the Mill Valley City Council meeting tonight.

Mill Valley contracted with the Los Angeles firm to handle assessment district bond processing beginning last April. But, according to C. Raymond Wood, president of the company, the contract "has never been implemented."

To continue the contract without the necessary information, he said, "would be doing any client a disservice rather than a service."

Rutherford, who last month refused to approve warrants for payment of $112 to the Los Angeles company, declared, "Many errors have been discovered in the system as it has gone on so far. Until these are corrected, I have no way of approving it."

He said he had not wanted the system in the first place. He said he has received no correspondence from the Los Angeles firm and has supplied it with no information.

Hub Man Injured In Auto Smashup

A San Rafael driver's right arm was fractured in the crash of his automobile in San Anselmo early today.

Walter John Hatch, 39, of 54 Grove Street, was eastbound on Greenfield Avenue when he tried to turn onto Miracle Mile at 1:25 a.m. His automobile missed the turn, hit curbing at the southeast corner, knocked down a boulevard stop sign and overturned.

Hatch was cited by San Anselmo police for driving without due caution.

His fractured arm was put in a cast at Marin General Hospital.

Tiburon Sanitation

The Tiburon Sanitary District board of directors did not hold its meeting Monday because of lack of a quorum and rescheduled the meeting for next Monday at 7:30 p.m. in the Tiburon Boulevard Treatment Plant.

ILWU Workers Marking Time

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Maritime workers here marked time today despite an injunction halting the 19-day nationwide shipping strike.

The International Longshoremen's and Warehousemen's Union observed the anniversary of "Bloody Thursday" when several maritime men were killed in the 1934 waterfront strike. The ILWU hiring hall was closed.

Crews agreed, however, to load the President Cleveland, scheduled to sail at 4 p.m. for the orient.

Boy Hit By Baseball Undergoes Surgery

A 13-year-old Larkspur boy suffered a rupture yesterday when hit by a pitched ball during a Southern Marin Pony League all star inter-squad practice yesterday at the College of Marin baseball field in Kentfield.

Russell P. Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Preston Smith, 148 Magnolia Avenue, underwent emergency surgery last night at Marin General Hospital. Hospital spokesmen described his condition as satisfactory today.

The youngster, a pitcher-outfielder, was at bat when hit in the left side at the base of his ribs by the baseball. It caused internal bleeding of the spleen.

STOCKS TODAY

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market closed higher today in moderately active trading.

Key stocks rose from fractions to a point or more. A few leading issues did much better.

Volume for the day was estimated at 3.3 million shares compared with 2.18 million on Monday.

Gains of fractions to more than a point were the general rule for most key stocks but some did better.

Commonwealth Edison, riding on renewed interest in its two-for-one stock split proposal spurted about four points.

Zenith added more than three. Beckman Instruments was a three-point gainer.

Steels, rubbers, utilities, chemicals, coppers, oils and building materials were on the upside.

Honolulu Oil was an outstanding casualty, showing a loss of about nine points in late trading. The stock was besieged with sellers on news that the Justice Department has questioned the sale of the firm's assets to a number of companies.

American Stock Exchange prices advanced as trading picked up.

Corporate bonds edged higher. U.S. government bonds retreated.

30 Firemen Battle Novato Grass Fire

Flames swept across three to four acres of very dense grass on vacant land at the end of Davidson Avenue in Novato yesterday afternoon.

The smoky blaze, encouraged by wind, kept five Novato fire trucks, 13 paid firemen and 17 volunteers busy for nearly three hours. The cause of the fire is unknown, firemen said.

The property is owned by the Novato Sanitary District. The fire burned around the settling ponds formerly used with the old sewer plant.

Novato firemen also had a small grass fire to fight yesterday along Highway 37 between Atherton Avenue and Highway 101. A motorist may have tossed a cigarette, firemen said.

Polio Shots To Suspend Temporarily

The Marin County Health Department is temporarily out of polio vaccine and will give no polio shots tomorrow, Dr. Carolyn B. Albrecht, county health officer, announced today.

A new supply is expected in time to resume the regular schedule of free vaccinations at the health department at Fourth Street and Grand Avenue, San Rafael, from 1 to 4 p.m. Friday, Dr. Albrecht said.

Meeting Postponed

Lack of a quorum at Kentfield School District Board's organizational meeting Monday night prevented reorganization of the board, so elections of president and clerk were postponed to the regular meeting next Monday at 8 p.m., reported Mrs. Watson Conner, incumbent president.

No Cause For Alarm On Government Spending

Although governmental spending may appear to be reaching new highs, there is no real cause for alarm, according to a report by the University of California's Bureau of Public Administration at Berkeley.

The report, "Recent Trends in Governmental Finances in the United States," is a 74-page analysis of governmental expenditures at the federal, state, and local levels covering the past three decades.

It concludes that, except for war-related expenditures, governmental spending has remained at about the same level as before World War II.

Critics of governmental spending, the report says, generally fail to take into account the effects of inflation, population growth, and the over-all increase in the national economy (Gross National Product), as well as significant differences in federal accounting systems, compared with others.

Failure to take these properly into account, the report says, leads to widespread misconceptions on the magnitude of governmental spending at the national, state and local levels.

The report presents figures to show that non-military spending actually declined during the period 1938 to 1959, in terms of the percentage of the Gross National Product.

And, by every relative measure, the report says, the national debt is declining.

By contrast, local and state governments, private industry and individuals are increasing their debt.

For the purposes of federal accounting, most capital expenditures — such as post offices and dams, new trucks or equipment — are considered exactly like current expenses.

A state which borrows money to build a new hospital or a business which borrows to expand its plant does not operate in this fashion. Rather, it spreads the costs out over many years and retires these, with interest.

If standard accounting procedures were adopted by the federal government, it would show a surplus during every peacetime year, the report contends.

In fact, the report says, the statistical "facts" are "quite superficial" and more perspective is needed in viewing public financing.

Novato Garage Looted Of Tools

A burglar squeezed his way into Nave's Garage, 7515 Redwood Highway, Novato, early Monday, and stole tools with an estimated value of $500, Novato police reported.

The thief pried off a section of the galvanized sheet metal rear wall of the building and squeezed through the hole. He removed wrenches, drills and other tools from a chest owned by mechanic Henry Chiosi of 4 Summers Avenue, Novato, and also stole a wrench and electric drill owned by the garage.

Police Chief Roy McLaren said the burglar left footprints and shreds of fabric from his clothes as he squeezed through the hole.

Menace To Forests

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — The California Highway Patrol will "vigorously" enforce the law that prohibits throwing lighted cigarettes and matches from vehicles, Commissioner Bradford M. Crittenden said today.

Crittenden said that persons who discard lighted materials while they are driving "constitute a severe menace to California forests and fields."

U.S. Aids Angola

LISBON, Portugal (AP) — The American Embassy said Tuesday the U.S. government has given $335,000 worth of aid to victims of the rebellion in Portugal's West African territory of Angola.

The statement followed a Portuguese denial in Luanda, Angola, that the U.S. government had given such aid.

Combat Helmets

NEW YORK (UPI)—Police here have been ordered to put on plastic "combat" helmets when they turn off fire hydrants on hot summer days to protect them from brickbats tossed by children.

The order was issued because of frequent attacks on officers who must turn off hydrants that have been opened without authorization by young and old seeking relief from the heat.

Professor Guilty —By Association

BUFFALO, N. Y. (AP) — Miss Jennie Scott Graham, a University of Buffalo professor, has 59 nieces and nephews who visit her at her home near the Buffalo Municipal Zoo.

"They all think I own the zoo," she says. "And they ask me 'How is your elephant?' or 'What's happened to your giraffe'?"

Belvedere Council Sets Plan Review

The Belvedere city council will review the tentative map of the controversial Western Island Tidelands Subdivision at its meeting tomorrow at 8 p.m. in the Belvedere Community Hall.

Also on the agenda are the second reading of an amendment to the subdivision ordinance, review of recommendations from the Fire Department on future extension and replacement of fire mains, and discussion of the city's sewer contract award, City Manager Britton Rey said.

Thief Steals Sausalito's Flag

Sausalito police reported today that an American flag was stolen last evening from the city manager's office in the city hall.

Reserve police officer James Newbert took the flag down at about 7:30 p.m. from the Vina Del Mar plaza flag pole and placed it in the city manager's office, which is left open because the police radio is located there. Later, officer Tom Zink discovered the flag was missing.

Education In California $1 Billion During The Year

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—Education in California cost taxpayers nearly one billion dollars during fiscal 1960-61, the State Department of Education reported today.

Local school districts received $680,079,727 in state aid during the period which ended last Friday midnight, the department said.

In addition, the state spent an estimated $171,927,223 for the University of California, including $50,693,435 for new construction, and $113,011,870 for the 16 state colleges with $44,004,725 for new construction.

The total educational cost was estimated at $967,082,134 but the final figures will not be available from the state controller for another month or two.

The state spent an estimated 41 per cent of its tax funds for support to local school districts at a flat rate of $125 per student with more money for districts which couldn't raise enough in local taxes.

The average cost per student in state tax money was an estimated:

1. $234 for elementary, with local taxes bringing in $127 per student.
2. $324 for high school, with $236 in local taxes.
3. $424 for junior college, with $238 in local funds.

HOW SOON WILL CALIFORNIA DOMINATE THE U.S.?

Starlets, swimming pools and smog. To a lot of Easterners that sums up the West Coast. But fact is, they're wrong — dead wrong. An exciting cultural, political and scientific boom is taking place beyond the Mississippi. The power pendulum in the U.S. is swinging westward. And as one Westerner put it to a Manhattan audience: "We're going to run you guys."

In this week's Saturday Evening Post, you'll read about the exciting things happening out West. About California's overnight millionaires. How the state has a near monopoly on Nobel prize winners. And what the West's chances are of putting a favorite son in the White House.

You'll read, too, about the heavy price of progress. How dollar-hungry promoters are slapping together new slums. How traffic threatens to strangle our cities. And how much of California's wealth is tied to defense spending.

Vandals Must Dig For Punishment

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — Four juvenile boys who admitted acts of vandalism that caused more than $1,000 worth of damage at a school were given this sentence by Judge Sam Davis Tatum:

They must dig up the stump of a tree they cut down; dig holes to plant several other trees; work to pay back their parents, who paid school authorities for the damage; and be home by 11 p.m. every night unless with their parents.

"This court does not treat lightly youngsters who make pleasure and frolic out of defacing, destroying or mutilating property," Tatum said.

Go Jump In Ocean, Artist Tells Buyers

ASBURY PARK, N.J. (AP) — Seventy-year-old Paul Jakewich makes figurines out of chicken bones, lobster claws and clam shells.

The figurines — including dinosaurs, Biblical characters, rabbits and musicians — adorn his home here.

"Lots of people want to buy them," says Jakewich. "I tell them to go dive in the ocean like I did for shells and make their own."

Japanese To Build A Monorail System

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—A prototype of a monorail transit system will be built in Japan within a year.

J. Kenneth Hull, president of Lockheed Aircraft International, said the prototype would consist of a two-unit monorail train, a one-mile test track and a simulated station platform.

Plans call for the system to be extended eventually to monorail service on the densely-traveled route connecting the famous Japanese shrine city of Nikko with Kirifuri, a new mountain resort under development 80 miles from Tokyo.

The system is to be built by the Nihon-Lockheed Monorail Co. Ltd., a newly-incorporated Japanese firm organized to design, develop and construct on a world-wide basis the supported-type monorail system developed by Lockheed's California division.

Lockheed plans to make a substantial investment in the new company when financial details are worked out with the Japanese Ministry of Finance and will provide technical guidance.

The Lockheed monorail rides atop a single rail rather than being suspended as other systems. It uses lightweight cars of aircraft-type construction, permitting use of smaller and shorter single-column supports for lower construction costs, maximum use of existing rights-of-way and minimum requirements for additional rights-of-way.

The system can be installed on highway center lines, over river beds and along existing railways without disrupting normal surface traffic, according to its designers.

Shirley Finally Gets Mink Coat

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Shirley Jones took in stride her 1960 movie accomplishments: (1) her first dramatic assignment ("Elmer Gantry"). (2) her first dancing part ("Pepe") and (3) her first western ("Two Rode Together").

What really excited her was her first mink coat.

"It's just that there comes a time in a girl's life," she said, "when she must have that mink."

Woman Scares Off 'Peeping Tom'

A young peeping tom, believed to be only 11 or 12 years old, was frightened from a San Rafael home early today.

Mrs. Donna Claire Staritt of 111 Coleman Drive called police just before 1 a.m. She told officers Richard Douglas and David Vargo that she was in the bedroom when she noticed a face peering through the window.

Mrs. Staritt said the boy appeared to be 11 or 12, about five feet two inches tall. Police searched the area but the culprit had vanished.

Recreational Beach, Park System Measure Is Signed

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — Funds for development of a state recreational beach and park system will come from general tax revenues instead of tidelands oil royalties from now on.

Monday, acting Gov. Glenn M. Anderson signed into law a measure to abolish the special beaches and parks fund in which was deposited tidelands oil taxes.

It was one of several bills by Assemblyman Jesse M. Unruh (D-Los Angeles) to kill special outlay funds and centralize state spending. Others were previously signed by Gov. Edmund G. Brown.

Other bills signed by Anderson would:

Allow local school districts to receive state aid for classes taught by teachers who inadvertently failed to have a valid credential during the year.

Permit the U.S. Veterans Administration to buy cigarettes in the state without paying the 3-cents a pack tax. It would also limit tax-exempt donations of sample packages to those containing five cigarettes or less.

Political Change

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)—The town of Hoover, located in Oklahoma's "Little Dixie" area—a Democratic stronghold—wants to change its name to Fort Arbuckle. The name was applied to the post-office back in the '20s when Herbert Hoover, a Republican, was president.

Teamsters At Convention Give Hoffa Full Vote Of Confidence

MIAMI BEACH (UPI)—Nearly 2,000 delegates to the Teamsters Union Convention unanimously rejected all corruption charges against union President James R. Hoffa today and gave him a full vote of confidence.

The delegates shouted their approval of a resolution that hailed the "integrity, loyalty and devotion" of Hoffa and the union's high command. No dissenting voice was heard.

The resolution reviewed the charges made by the Senate Rackets Committee, court-appointed monitors and federal indictments during the past four years.

It said that Hoffa and his top aides had the "wholehearted ratification and approbation" of the union for "all their activities and conduct" while in office.

Hoffa, who has clinched re-election for another five-year term, appeared to be certain to win sweeping powers to control the nation's largest union although opposition developed to his multi-million-dollar dues increase proposal.

W. L. Williams, a delegate from Seattle, Wash., Local 117, introduced the approval resolution.

"I think it is high time we went down the road to support our officers," Williams said. There was no debate.

Before the convention gave Hoffa a clean bill, Teamsters' general counsel Edward Bennett Williams said the Senate investigation led by Sen. John L. McClellan (D-Ark.) trampled on the Bill of Rights and used the motto "anything goes" in its inquiry into the union's affairs.

Williams said the tide has turned so that now captains of industry are being investigated instead of the union leaders.

Will There Be An Auto Industry Strike This Year?

By A. F. MAHAN

DETROIT (AP)—Will there be a strike in the auto industry this year?

Probably not for a straight cents-per-hour wage increase.

But very possibly if the United Auto Workers Union becomes convinced it can make existing jobs more secure and get back to work thousands of its laid off members by hitting the bricks.

These are conclusions drawn from frank, personal off-the-record discussions with the top negotiators of General Motors, Ford and Chrysler and their counterparts in the United Auto Workers' hierarchy.

Neither side gives the appearance it is spoiling for a fight. Peaceful settlement hopes were expressed by everybody on both sides as bargainers sat down last week to begin negotiating new pacts to replace current three-year ones expiring Aug. 31. Talks resume Thursday.

Inventories are high, unemployment widespread.

General Motors had 32,249 hourly rated workers laid off June 1 and drawing supplemental unemployment benefits (SUB). Ford had 9,233 idle at the same time, and on June 20 Chrysler had 24,454 unemployed. Unsold new cars in dealers' hands July 1 were estimated at 920,000.

Top UAW men said their rank and file members are particularly unhappy when the auto companies schedule overtime work for a reduced force, rather than recalling laid off employes or creating new jobs.

Overtime normally is the heaviest in the early weeks of new model production, when employment also is highest. But some plants work considerable overtime throughout the year.

The union's GM committee seemed most concerned about the overtime issue.

Both Henry Ford II, chairman of the Ford Motor Co., and Walter P. Reuther, UAW president, have agreed as members of the President's Committee on Labor-Management Policies that unemployment approximating seven per cent of the nation's labor force is "intolerable."

The Jefferson nickel was introduced in 1938.

Art, Garden Fair Very 'Successful'

The 16th annual Marin Art and Garden Fair closed a successful five-day run last night, and today plans were already under way for next year's show at the Art and Garden Center in Ross.

"With more exhibitors than at any previous fair and with as many as 10,000 persons daily on the grounds, plans to cope with the near-saturation point are first on the agenda," Marcelle B. McCoy, fair manager, said today. Greater utilization of the 10-acre center will allow the expected expansion, Mrs. McCoy believes.

"A total of 25,838 persons paid to see the show, Mrs. McCoy said, "but at least three times that number saw the event, either as a volunteer worker or as a guest."

Highest attendance was 7,261 on Sunday. Yesterday, the holiday brought out 6,277 fair visitors. Attendance on other days was 2,141 at the Friday night opening, 5,131 on Saturday and 5,028 on Monday.

Plans to handle the perennial increase in attendance and allocation of the limited space at the Art and Garden Center where the fairs will be held until at least 1965 when the Frank Lloyd Wright-designed fairgrounds at the civic center in Santa Venetia are ready, will be discussed this week at a meeting of the fair's executive committee. The members, all on the Art and Garden Center board of directors, are James S. Goodale, Herman E. Hein, Richard F. Tyler, John C. Gilman and Mrs. Frank C. Stratford.

Mrs. Norman B. Livermore, president of the center, last night commended Henry H. Cole, the San Rafael landscape architect who designed the 1961 fair around a French theme, for his colorful and different design and layout. She thanked Mrs. McCoy and the other members of the staff for their "professionalism in managing and publicizing a tremendous community project."

20,000 Watch Fireworks At Corte Madera

A crowd estimated at 20,000 people watched the Larkspur-Corte Madera fireworks display last night in the city park of Corte Madera.

Many of the fireworks failed to go off properly, exploding prematurely near Corte Madera volunteer firemen who were shooting them. However, no one was hurt, reported Fire Chief Frank Nelson. Many small spot fires were started, but firemen quickly controlled these.

The fireworks were visible from all over central Marin County. Besides the crowd at the park itself and the parking lot in the Corte Madera shopping center, residents gathered in yards and streets on nearby hills to watch the display.

Immediately after the display, at 10:15 p.m., a small grass fire started on Millard Avenue in Larkspur, but was confined to about 20 square feet. Cause of the fire was unknown.

The annual fireworks display is sponsored by the Larkspur-Corte Madera joint recreation commission. The city of Larkspur, the town of Corte Madera, and local organizations and merchants pay for the fireworks.

College Emphasis Concern Voiced

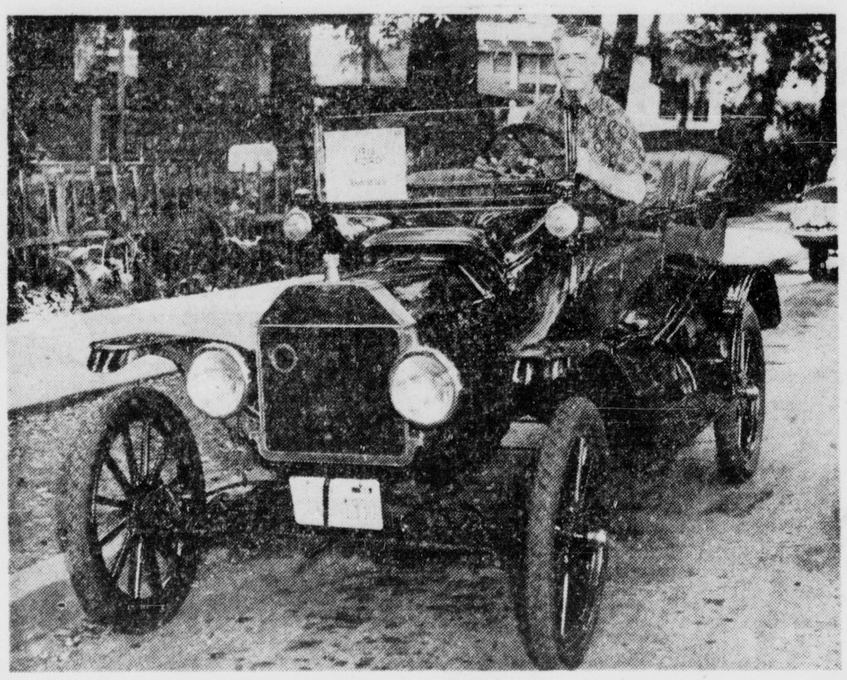
ROCHESTER, N.Y. (AP)— Music man Mitch Miller, an alumni-elected trustee of his alma mater, the University of Rochester, is concerned about the attitude of some college students today.

"Perhaps depression parents are at fault for taking the initiative from kids, for overprotecting them and showering them with material things we never had," Miller said in a talk at the university.

He wondered whether too many college students weren't going along just for the ride, enjoying the fun, glamour and stamp of respectability. He pointed out that too often the serious student is looked upon as an oddball, whereas the dilettante should be the one considered out of step.

Double-Barrelled Fire

NEW LONDON, Ohio (AP)—A dozen volunteer firemen had to brave an additional adverse condition in battling a blaze for a half-hour here. The fire was in a railroad gondola car, and its cargo was 70 tons of sulphur which Fire Chief Al Walters said gave off a distinct aroma.



WINS TOPS IN MODEL T SHOW

Raymond M. Lally, 74 Madrone Avenue, Larkspur, is pictured in his 1915 Model T Ford touring car which took the first place trophy last Friday in the National Horseless Carriage Club Show held in Seattle, Wash., and Victoria, British Columbia, Canada. The auto was judged the best restored and most authentic in Model T competition. The 2,000 pound, five-passenger auto has much of its original equipment. Its radiator is brass and it has kerosene headlamps. Lally, a member of both San Rafael and Bay Area horseless carriage groups and the Bay Area Model T Club, purchased the automobile about a year ago. The original owner died shortly after buying the car in Detroit, Mich., in 1915 and driving it to Oakland. The automobile was then put into storage and not taken out until 1955 when it was put on exhibition. (Independent-Journal Photo)

Novato Community Club Sets 'Charley's Aunt'

Under direction of Sallie G. Paskow of San Anselmo, a group of 11 amateurs has been busy rehearsing for four performances of "Charley's Aunt" at the Novato Community Club, 906 Machin Avenue. Dates for the shows are July 14, 15, 21 and 22.

This is the first time the club players have offered a summer production. A farce was chosen for light hot-weather enjoyment and its type is such to appeal to all members of the family.

With curtain time at 8:30 p.m., proceeds of the opening night will go to the Community Club. This is the first time this has been done, as previously all receipts have gone to defraying the costs of putting on the productions.

Novato and San Rafael residents make up the cast. Scott Wright and Vince McGovern of Novato will portray college boys whose desperate love situation gives rise to all the fun. Jim Carroll of San Rafael will pretend to be the "aunt."

Others of the cast include Pauline La Lancet as the real aunt. She is a Novato resident as is her purported "niece" Beverly van der Beets.

Ladies admired by the lads are Maggie Feldstein and Dorothy Houghton, both of San Rafael. James Dunham will be guardian of the ladies while butler to the gentlemen will be Frank Phillips, both of Novato.

Building Firm Files For Incorporation

SACRAMENTO (CNS)—Secretary of State Frank M. Jordan announced Custom Builders of Marin, Inc., has filed articles of incorporation with his office, to be capitalized at $200,000 in $10 par shares.

Directors of the company were listed as William P. Parnow, 99 Junipero Serra, and Robert N. Parnow, 60 Balboa, both of San Rafael, and E. Warren McGuire, 374 Oak Manor Drive, Fairfax.

San Rafael High Honor Roll Students

Fourth quarter honor roll students at San Rafael High School totaled 151 from an enrollment of 1,750, or 8.6 per cent, it was announced today.

The roll is compiled on a basis of all who achieve 11 points calculated on three points for an "A" and one for each "B."

Seniors scored approximately 28 per cent of the roll total.

The top 24 comprising those with 17 to 21 points follow:

41 Teenagers Trained To Conduct Marin City Recreation Program

Forty-one teen-agers started jobs today as recreation aides for the Marin City summer recreation program, after completing a two-week course.

They have been making plastic paper weights, popsickle stick desk stands, molds of plaster of Paris, stuffed caterpillars and dragon puppets with red tongues made out of socks.

They have been attending lectures given by volunteers of Marin who specialize in different crafts as well as in teaching how to work with a "shy guy" or an "aggressive one."

Of the 41 all are volunteers, between 13 and 19. Twelve also attend summer school at Richardson Bay School. Their training day is a six-hour day.

The youngsters are a spirited, fun loving group. Art Foster, sports, says that he keeps order in teaching by "keeping the kids busy." His brother Ron teaches clarinet and his sister, Royce, dancing. Royce said the program is fine, she thinks, because the youngsters are able to show their parents what they have done at the end of the session instead of "just goofing off all summer."

Mrs. Juanita Cobb, a director of the community services district in Marin City, which sponsors the program, said "these teen-agers are giving a service to their community through serving as aides."

Ten aides last year, this year there are 41. The aides have their own picnics, dances and talent shows during the summer, director Mrs. Santafe Moses said and will have an open house Thursday.

Registration will be held Wednesday from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. at Room 9 of Manzanita School. The program begins the same day and runs through Aug. 23 at the school. A registration fee will be charged. Hours are 9 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. for 6- to 8-year-olds, 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. for 9- to 12-year-olds.

Aides include Claudette Dedrick, Ima Lee Mathis, Delorise Domino, Ron, Art and Royce Foster, Brian Beard, Bea Hayden, Louretta Smith, Mary Coleman, Hattie Session, Diane Turner, Dorothy Mathis, Fay Crutchfield, Deanna Durbin, Beverly Bronson, Lurine Brown, Gloria Woodkins, Carol Cooper, Marie Hendrix, La Tanya Hensley, Ronnie Striplin, Larry Striplin, Melvin Howard, Raymond Stark, Michael Holloway, Mitchel Howard, Craig Johnson, Charles Bullock, Carl Dedrick, Pauline Jackson, George McDuke, Ennis Bowie, James Bullock, Clivetta Williams, Donna Morgan, Lloyd Bland, Horace Dupont, Doris Bowie, Lynette Morgan and Andria Purifoy.

Consultants who trained the youngsters and were secured by Mrs. Yopi Lewis of Larkspur include Mrs. Robert Praether, of Sausalito, Mrs. A. O'Brien, William C. Murray of the county welfare department; Mrs. Marian Kroner and Mrs. John Roberts of Mill Valley; Mrs. Clarenza Burch, Vallejo; Mrs. Grace Black, Vallejo; and Royle and Brian Wells of San Rafael; Bernice Schram, Novato; Mrs. Louvenia Scott, Marin City; Gloria Woodkins, Marin City and Mrs. Jane Wells.

Boat Bursts Into Flames With Marinite On Board

Carlton D. Dethlefsen of San Rafael had his inboard racing boat, with which he has become one of the state's top drivers, burn from under him at Lakeport, Lake County, Monday.

Dethlefsen and the boat's builder John Sofilos of San Francisco had just launched the 16-foot craft at about 8 a.m. to test some engine adjustments. Dethlefsen said the $8,500 boat burst into flames "probably from gas fumes." He and Sofilos jumped for their lives and swam a few yards to shore.

Dethlefsen said there was nothing that could be done as flames shot some 50 feet into the air. The boat was destroyed.

He said insurance did not cover the craft. But he and Sofilos were "going to sit down and scratch their heads" today for ideas so they can "get going (with another boat) in about five or six weeks."

Driver Dethlefsen holds the world record for SK class type boats, and is high point man in boat racing in the state. Last year, with the boat that was destroyed Monday, he won the Northern California and Pacific Coast Championship in SK class.

Two weeks ago he took the crown of the Western Division Championship at Modesto and last week at the Regatta of Champions in Long Beach, he set the meet record and won both the trophy dash and the regatta's main event.

Dethlefsen is a resident of 11 Aqua Vista Drive.

Boy, 7, Injured As Car, Bike Collide

A 7-year-old boy suffered a bruised forehead when a bicycle he was riding collided with a car at Alameda de la Loma and Calle de la Mesa in Raphael Village Monday evening.

Chris E. Jacobs of Daly City was riding a bicycle owned by Willis E. Spitzer of 416 Calle de la Mesa. He told California Highway Patrolmen that he was coming "fast" down Calle de la Mesa and could not stop in time to avoid hitting the side of a car in the intersection, driven by Mrs. Maxine P. McEnery of 602 San Jose Boulevard, Novato. Mrs. McEnery took the boy to Novato General Hospital, where he was treated for the bruise.

Dr. Bostick To Appear On KQED Show

Dr. Warren L. Bostick of San Rafael will appear on the "Profile: Bay Area" show tomorrow night on television station KQED.

The program, seen at 9:30 p.m., will be devoted to a debate on the merits of President John F. Kennedy's plan for medical care for the aged through social security.

Dr. Bostick, president of the California Medical Assn. and a member of the University of California medical faculty, will oppose the president's proposals. Upholding the Kennedy plan, as embodied in the King-Anderson Bill, will be Dr. Philip B. Lee, Palo Alto internist and member of the Stanford University medical faculty.

San Francisco attorney Caspar W. Weinberger moderates the "Profile: Bay Area" show.

Clothing Drive For Hong Kong

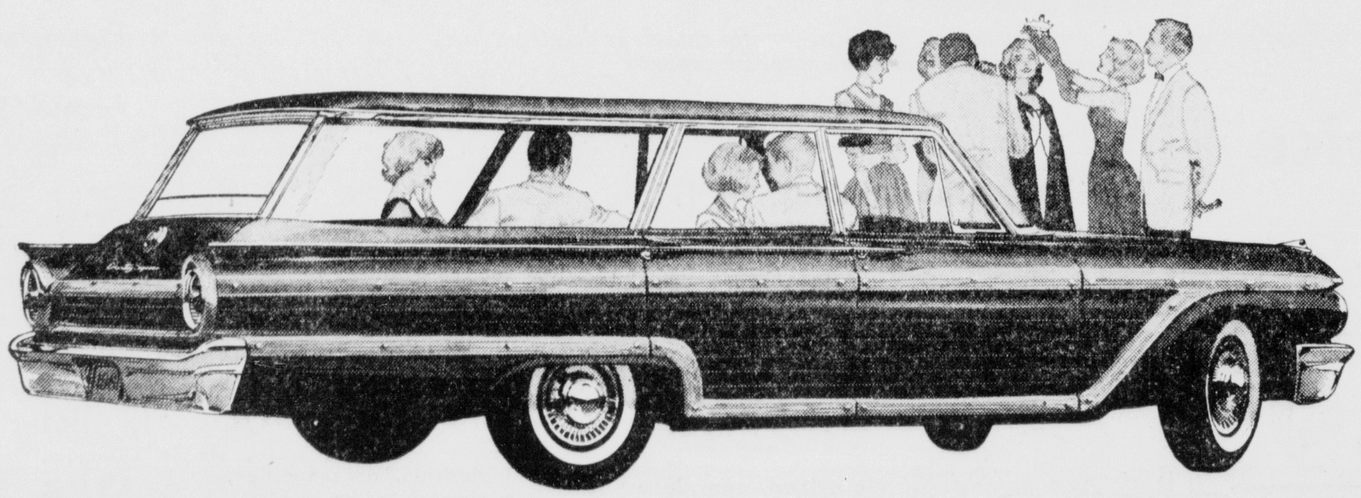
HONOLULU (AP)—More than a ton of clothing has been collected in Honolulu for delivery aboard the Navy tanker Ponchatoula to Hong Kong refugees.

A number of Hawaii churches have joined the clothing drive as part of President John F. Kennedy's people-to-people campaign. The Navy is donating the transportation.

The Ponchatoula is scheduled to sail for the Far East this summer.

ANOTHER BIG REASON BEHIND THE BIG BOOM IN FORD SALES:

No other wagon can match Ford's features (or popularity!)



There's a whole wagonload of Ford features that only America's station wagon specialists can bring you.

First, there's more room. Ford's extended load deck is the longest and widest in its field. The tailgate opening is seven inches wider than last year, too.

There's more convenience. You can have an electrically controlled roll-down rear window in any Ford wagon . . . it's standard in all Country Squires and 9-Passenger Country Sedans. In their field, only Ford wagons have all seats facing forward.

There's more distinction. The Country Squire (shown above) is the one and only wagon in its field with body panels that look like mahogany, wear like steel.

There are more savings, too. Ford's Ranch Wagon is America's lowest-priced,* full-size wagon. And like all Fords, every Ford wagon is built to be more service-free: goes 30,000 miles between chassis lubrications, 4,000 miles between oil changes, brakes adjust automatically, mufflers are made to last three times as long as ordinary mufflers, and the finish never needs waxing.

STOP putting off that station wagon you've always wanted. SWAP for a '61 Ford wagon now while your Ford Dealer's celebrating record-breaking sales. SAVE with the wagon America loves most . . . made by FORD . . . America's station wagon specialists for 32 years!

Korea Failure Was Major Disaster, Says MacArthur

MANILA (UPI)—General of the Army Douglas MacArthur said today that the United Nations forces could have won the Korean war without using the atomic bomb. He said if the free world had gone on to victory there it would not now face the possibility of war with communist China.

"Our failure to win that war was a major disaster for the free world," he declared.

MacArthur told the Philippines Congress that it is a "basic principle" that "a great nation that enters upon war and does not see it through to victory must ultimately suffer all the consequences of defeat."

"That is what happened to us in Korea," the 81-year-old general said.

"With victory within our grasp, and without the use of the atom bomb which we needed no more then than against Japan, we failed to see it through," he said. "Had we done so we would have destroyed Red China's capability of waging modern war for generations to come. Our failure to win this war was a major disaster for the free world.

"Its fatal consequences are now increasingly being felt in the military rise of Red China into a mighty colossus which threatens all of Asia and bids fair to emerge as the balance of military power in the world. This would jeopardize freedom on all continents."

However, the American general who was relieved of his U.N. command by President Harry S. Truman said the conditions that prevailed in the Korean war "exist no longer and will come no more."

"Then," he said, "we were the sole possessor of nuclear power—we stood alone in military might. Now all is changed.

"Others possess this weapon. Relative strengths from now on will probably change little with the years. Action by one will promptly be matched by reaction from the other.

"The great question is—can global war now be outlawed from the world?

"If so, it would mark the greatest advance in civilization since the Sermon on the Mount. It would lift at one stroke the darkest shadow which has engulfed mankind from the beginning."

MacArthur, in Manila on a 12-day "sentimental journey" to visit old friends and battle sites, said that "global war has become a Frankenstein to destroy both sides."

"No longer is it a weapon of adventure—the short cut to international power," he said. "If you lose, you are annihilated. If you win, you stand only to lose. No longer does it possess even the chance of the winner of a duel—it contains now only the germs of double suicide."

He called on the free world to profit from the "lesson of Korea."

"There can be no half-way measures, no half blows, no enemy sanctuary," MacArthur told an informal session of the Philippines Congress.

He urged the free world to adopt continued vigilance and branded as "misleading" and "nonsense" such phrases as "passive defense, aggressive defense and privileged sanctuary."

MacArthur's 30-minute address was received by a hushed, intently attentive audience, many of whom were veterans of World War II.

It was interrupted by applause only three times.

There was a thundering standing ovation at both the beginning and the end of his speech Each lasted more than a minute.

General MacArthur described Southeast Asia as the "focal center of pressure" in this area but said that the Philippines, because of the broad expanse of water around it, had little to fear from any predatory attack.

Earlier, MacArthur attended a reunion with nearly 3,000 old soldiers, some of them disabled and on crutches who came to greet their old commander on his sentimental return to the Philippines.

His voice trembling with emotion, the old soldier told the men he once commanded: "On such an occasion as this, my thoughts go back to those men who went with us to their last campaign. I do not know the dignity of their birth, but I do know the glory of their death."

MacArthur spoke of the war dead almost in a whisper: "Their flag will fly again only in the chambers of our memories . . . waiting, waiting, waiting in the Chancellory of Heaven."

The meeting between MacArthur and his comrades was held in the swank Manila Hotel, itself once a battlefield where Americans and Japanese fought room by room when the city was liberated during World War II.

Hundreds of Philippine scouts who fought under MacArthur on Bataan and Corregidor and thousands of ex-guerrillas who carried on the war before the old soldier returned during World War II assembled in the hotel dining room to honor their "old man" at a lunch.

For the first time since he arrived in the Philippines Monday, MacArthur put aside his general's uniform and battered officer's cap and selected a light tan suit for lunch with his old comrades-in-arms.

Around his neck, the general wore a garland, woven from white Sampaguita, the national flower of the Philippines.

More than one million persons cheered MacArthur yesterday in the biggest and most colorful Fourth of July celebration ever staged in this former Spanish and American colonial city.

Philippine President Carlos P. Garcia, host to the MacArthurs, said last night: "We now have in our midst a hero, a statesman and a Filipino by adoption, who by his genius has contributed in a very large measure to what we are as a nation."

The war veterans awarded MacArthur a decoration with a citation that read in part:

"Awarded to General MacArthur, soldier and thinker, in recognition of his services to the Philippine government . . . by his brilliant military leadership, coupled with his profound political and social philosophy, the people of the Philippines were delivered from the holocaust of World War II . . . and finally in recognition of his stature and one of the greatest military leaders of modern times."

ROMANCE DIDN'T WORK OUT

It was a hot Fourth of July in Lubbock, Tex., and Roxanne Maxcy, 18, wanted to cool off. Her boy friend there is a seven-foot snowman made of ice shavings from the Lubbock iceskating rink. Dedicated Policeman

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—The students of Peabody Demonstration School here dedicated their annual this year to Robert Snyder, a policeman. Snyder, a grandfather, began directing traffic in front of the school four years ago. "He's just like a father to all the children," a faculty member said. "They tell him all their troubles."

Nikita Boasts Secret Weapon Against West

MOSCOW (AP) — Premier Khrushchev declared yesterday that in the war of wits between East and West "my secret weapon is my tongue."

Khrushchev, in a gay and ebulient mood, was talking with guests at the American Embassy's Fourth of July party. He had nothing to say about politics.

He took U.S. Ambassador Llewellyn Thompson's 7-year-old daughter Sherry by the hand and went out to inspect the vegetable patch where she is growing food. She sells her produce to the embassy cook.

Khrushchev's wife was with him and so were the other top leaders of the Soviet government including President Leonid Brezhnev and Anastas I. Mikoyan, first deputy premier.

Khrushchev started talking with correspondents while he was standing on the porch of the embassy shortly after arriving.

A French correspondent began the conversation. An American moved over and commented: "the attack has begun."

"We shall repel him," said Khrushchev.

"Even without wearing your uniform?" said the American.

"I don't need a uniform, I have brains" answered Khrushchev.

At this point Mikoyan interrupted and said his own weapon is his tongue. Khrushchev turned to the correspondents and said:

"That's right, my secret weapon is my tongue."

Eichmann Claims Credit For Truck-Jew Trade

JERUSALEM (AP) — Adolf Eichmann made the startling claim on the witness stand today that he—and not Heinrich Himmler — devised the macabre plan to trade the lives of a million Jews for trucks badly needed by the Nazi armies in 1944.

The former Gestapo lieutenant colonel said he conceived the idea in Budapest and chose Jewish leader Yoel Brand to fly to Palestine to try to get the Jewish Agency to negotiate with the Western Allies.

DENIES THREAT

But Eichmann denied he ever told Brand he would "still the death mills of Auschwitz" or would start them up again if the bargain collapsed, as Brand testified earlier in Eichmann's trial.

"I never made such a remark. To still the mills of death or to start them up was beyond the realm of my jurisdiction," the defendant declared.

Eichmann today told his own story of his role in Hungary, where he is charged with personally supervising the deportation of 600,000 Jews to their doom. He is indicted by Israel as the mainspring of the whole mass slaughter of European Jewery in his wartime job as chief of "Jewish affairs" in the Gestapo.

Defense counsel Robert Servatius gave Eichmann full rein to describe his Hungarian experience — the chapter of the extermination story that forms a keystone of Israel's case. Eichmann responded with fervor, his hands shaking in excitement. Repeatedly the court had to admonish him to stop so the interpreters could catch up.

CONTRAST

The defendant's own view of his job in Hungary was in direct contrast to the evidence submitted by Israel. He did admit "helping" to draw up "travel charts and timetables" for mass deportations ordered by Himmler but contended the main responsibility lay with Nazi Ambassador Edmund Veesenmayer and SS Police Chief Otto Winklemann.

Aside from that, Eichmann said he was still an "emigration" officer, even though emigration had been totally banned by that time.

He said he had so little to do when he first got to Budapest in March 1944 that he couldn't even keep his typists busy. With an embarrassed grin, he said his kommando consisted "only" of 15 to 20 persons.

Then he laced into a former colleague, SS Col. Kurt Becher, accusing him of negotiating emigration of Jews in exchange for money and equipment in violation of all of Himmler's directives.

Criminal Takes Revenge On Police

ELMONTE, Calif. (AP) — A food market circular recently carried an ad saying:

"Wanted. Engraver. Must be familiar with faces of Lincoln and Jackson. A lot of money can be made by right man. Call Gilbert 8-6191."

That's the phone number for the police department and the calls flooded in. Exasperated officers spent considerable time explaining they weren't looking for an engraver.

"It probably was somebody we pinched trying to get back at us," said Sgt. Earl Roberts. "What a way to get revenge!"

State Family Support Unit Elects Chief

William Bemiss, special investigator for the district attorney's office, is the new chairman of the State Family Support Council.

The council is composed of state investigators engaged primarily in tracking down errant fathers who fail to support their families.

The annual conference of the Family Support Council will be held in Marin County next year, Bemiss announced, probably during the first week of June.

Bemiss was elected to head the group at the annual conference last week in Anaheim. About 150 investigators and representatives from welfare, probation and sheriff departments attended the conference.

Scientists now believe the earth to be between 3½ and 4½ billion years old. The oceans are believed to be less than 600 million years old, however.

MARIN BUSINESS And INDUSTRY

(A Thrice-Weekly Column)

By HARRY CRAFT

An Old Sausalito Home Gets A Very Unusual Face-Lifting

Something unusual going on in home reconstruction in Sausalito is being done by Walter Nemhauser, French architect and contractor who came to Marin County just a little over a year ago.

Nemhauser purchased a sizable portion of the old David P. Belknap property including the original family summer home which was listed in the 1892 San Francisco social register as "Owl Ridge." The dwelling had the distinction of being a "19th century pre-fab home" in that some of its components were brought around Cape Horn in 1852. Among subsequent occupants after the Belknap family were the Edward Worcesters who did considerable remodeling on their own account.

Unhampered by conventional standards of either the 19th or 20th centuries in home design, Nemhauser has set about giving it another going over and new look in which any resemblance to the old dwelling is confined to a few basic structural members.

NOW THREE stories in height, with about another month of work before completion, the house stands out as a combination of heavy wood and metal framing, concrete deck, overhangs, glass, marbleized bath and thick mahogany doors, the sum total of which will probably never have a near counterpart, for Nemhauser claims he "never builds two homes alike, but according to ideas and design to fit the location."

The Nemhausers have been living on the property during the transformation and nary a stone has been turned or timber placed without personal supervision. The property, located at 41 San Carlos Street, contains about two-fifths of an acre, amply supplied with trees and scenery. None of the former have been removed during construction; if any were in the way, building was done around them.

It is Nemhouser's first Marin County architectural project. He says it will be listed for sale through the W. Robert Miller Co. when completed. The price: somewhere in six figures.

NOW CONDUCTING an aggressive sales program is the Del Mar residential subdivision off the Belvedere-Tiburon Highway, a project of the Rowley Construction Co.

Headed by Frederick C. Rowley of Tiburon, former Australian and Los Angeles construction man who organized the firm two years ago, the subdivision is making its biggest turnover in the $36,500 range. Associated with Rowley are Hugh L. Harn, also of Tiburon, Rowley's son, Brian, of Corte Madera and Eric M. Moir of Belvedere.

Homes are custom built on the site of the purchaser's choice but are not being sold to other builders for development.

Del Mar offers houses with lots of glass, separate family rooms, usually four bedrooms and electric kitchens. The sales office is open seven days a week.

THOUGH NOT a resident of the City of San Rafael, executive vice president Fred Enemark of the Marin County Savings and Loan Association was honored by the San Rafael City Council last week for his years of service to the community in a resolution of commendation.

The non-resident feature may soon be eliminated, however—Enemark lives in Bayside Acres, one of those islands of incorporation surrounded by city which may soon engulf it—him, too.

Giants Open Do-Or-Die Home Stand Against Redlegs

McCormick Faces Loop Leading Club Tonight

Mike McCormick, a winning pitcher until the San Francisco Giants got involved in their lacklustre road trip, is scheduled to hurl for them tonight when they host front running Cincinnati in the opener of a do-or-die home stand at Candlestick Park.

Lefty Mike, now 7-8, will be trying to end a personal three-game losing streak and faces a hotshot in rookie Ken Hunt (8-4) who has bested the Giants twice this year without a loss.

Manager Alvin Dark's battered troops return to windswept Candlestick Park after a road trip in which they won seven, lost 10 and played a 15-inning tie with the Philadelphia Phillies. Although still third in the race, they now trail the Reds by 5½ games—the biggest gap this season between the Giants and a pennant.

Following Sunday's double drubbing at the hands of Pittsburgh, the Giants split a double bill yesterday with the seventh place Chicago Cubs, taking the first, 19-3, then dropping the windup, 3-2.

A bright spot in the second game came when Willie Mays stroked the 300th home run of his major league career and 21st of the season. The most damage was done, however, by Orlando Cepeda in the opener who drove in eight runs while smashing his 22nd homer, a 500-footer, and adding two doubles and a single.

O'DELL SPARKLES

The 22-hit outburst off five Cub hurlers helped Lefty Billy O'Dell cruise to his fourth win against three losses. He had taken over in the first for Eddie Fisher, just back from Tacoma, who couldn't get anybody out. O'Dell struck out 13 and retired 18 in a row before George Altman homered in the seventh and Billy Williams doubled. Those were the only hits the Cubs got off him.

San Francisco climbed on Don Cardwell, the Bruin starter, for six runs in the two and two-thirds innings he lasted.

They might have saved some for the second game, which the Cubs won in the eighth inning on a home run by Ron Santo which preceded some fine relief pitching on the part of Bob Anderson.

RALLY FAILS

Anderson took over for Curtis in the ninth after Cepeda and Ed Bressoud led off with singles. Then he made pinch hitter Jim Marshall hit into a double play and fanned Willie McCovey, another pinch swinger, for the final out.

The Giants took a 2-0 lead in the fourth when Mays homered, Bressoud doubled and Jose Pagan singled.

Chicago tied it in the bottom half of the fourth with Santo's double capping singles by Jerry Kindall, Ernie Banks and George Altman.

Billy Loes started for the Giants and gave way to Dick LeMay who sustained his first loss to make him 1-1 on the year. The rookie southpaw gave up three hits while working the final 4⅔ innings.

BOWMAN JOINS GIANTS AS HILLER FARMED

Infielder Ferrell Bowman, 25, was expected to join the San Francisco Giants today after being recalled from Tacoma of the Pacific Coast League.

The Giants sent down Charlie Hiller to make room for Bowman. Hiller, who started the year as first string second baseman, had hit .228 in 59 games.

Bowman, a good glove man, had appeared in seven games for the Giants before being sent to Tacoma May 11. He was hitting over .300 at Tacoma.

McKinley Wins Semi-Final At Wimbledon

WIMBLEDON, Eng. (UPI)—Eighth-seeded Chuck McKinley of St. Ann, Mo., captured a berth against Australia's Rod Laver in the men's singles final of the Wimbledon Tennis Championships by beating Mike Sangster of Britain in the semi-finals today, 6-4, 6-4, 8-6.

McKinley, 20, a sophomore at Trinity (Tex.) University, thus became the first native-born American to reach the Wimbledon men's finals in six years—since Tony Trabert of Cincinnati won the crown in 1955. Alex Olmedo, a student in the United States but a native of Peru, won the championship in 1959.

The red-haired Laver, stormed into the other finals berth by trouncing Ramanathan Krishnan of India, 6-2, 8-6, 6-2.

Pursuit Second In Transpac Race; Sirius II Leads

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — The 2,225-mile Transpacific Yacht Race to Honolulu started yesterday, with a 49-foot yawl, Kialoa, the first across the 750-foot starting line.

The first official standings were due to be radioed back today.

Sirius II, an 81-foot sloop, took an early lead last night over the field of 41 yachts and two large Japanese square-riggers. The Sirius II, owned by Howard F. Ahmanson of Newport Harbor Yacht Club, rode 15-knot winds to take the lead.

The Pursuit of San Francisco, an 81-foot "M" was in second place just before dark, with the Baldwin M. Baldwin's 71-foot yawl, Escapade, right behind.

The U.S. Coast Guard cutter Dexter reported it appeared all of the fleet of 41 boats, as well as the Japanese vessels, had cleared Santa Catalina Island.

Chargers Sign Trio

SAN DIEGO (UPI)—Dick Harris, Doyle Nix and Dick Chorovich, three defensive veterans, have signed for the 1961 season with the San Diego Chargers of the American Football League.

GARDENA (UPI)—Ron Hornaday, San Fernando, won last night's 100-lap main event race at Ascot Park. He drove a 1960 Ford and was clocked in 45:37.79 around the half-mile dirt track.

Eddie Pagan of Lynwood finished second.

Redlegs Half Way To Title, But Fans Remain Skeptical

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Cincinnati Reds still hold first place by two games now that the smoke has settled on July 4th in the National League race, and that's supposed to be a position that promises a pennant. But even the die-hard Rhinelander fans will admit it ain't necessarily so.

Tradition has it that the Fourth of July leader wins the flag, yet the Reds have been able to cash in on that bit of folklore only once in three chances. The last time they were on top on July 4th was in 1957. It turned out to be their last day in first place that season, finishing fourth behind the pennant - winning Milwaukee Braves.

Win or lose, the Reds have opened up a 5½-game spread over third place San Francisco, lead fourth-place Pittsburgh by 8 and fifth-place Milwaukee by 11½. There hasn't been that much daylight showing in N.L. standings at this stage since 1955, when Brooklyn led by 12½ on July 4 and won by 13½.

The Reds retained their two-game edge by beating Pittsburgh 2-0 on the three-hit pitching of Joey Jay while the second-place Los Angeles Dodgers won their fifth in a row, 6-5 at Milwaukee. San Francisco split a pair at Chicago, winning in a romp, 19-3, before the Cubs made off with a 3-2 decision. St. Louis and Philadelphia also split, the Cards winning 10-7 in the first game and the Phils taking the nightcap 10-6.

Jay (11-4) gave up nothing but singles, walked but two and struck out three for his second shutout as the Reds won their fourth in a row. A fifth-inning home run by Gene Freese broke up a shutout duel with Earl Francis (1-3).

BRAVES SLUMP

The Dodgers handed the Braves a fourth straight loss, and their fifth defeat in six games by getting all their runs in the first inning off Bob Hendley and reliever Don Nottebart. After bases-loaded walks forced in the first two runs, Charlie Neal belted a three-run double and scored the clincher on a single by Norm Sherry. Stan Williams (8-7) was the winner with relief help from Dick Farrell, who gave up a home run by Hank Aaron.

Ed Mathews of the Braves and Daryl Spencer of the Dodgers suffered injuries when Spencer slid into Mathews at third.

Stan Musial collected four RBI with a triple and a homer for the Cards in the first game as Curt Simmons (3-7) beat Don Ferrarese (1-4). The Phils then junked their losing string at seven in the nightcap, overhauling a 6-0 Card lead on a three-run homer by Jim Coker in the seventh inning off losing reliever Craig Anderson.

Rams Sign All-Star

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Harold Beaty, a tackle from Oklahoma State, has been signed by the Los Angeles Rams, General Manager Elroy Hirsch said Beaty will be tried at offensive guard and defensive end after playing in the Aug. 4 College All-Star Game.

FORD WINS 15TH, BUT . . .

Tigers Cling To Lead In Hectic A.L. Battle

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Detroit Tigers are running on their own and have things running their way in that American League race, coming out of the July 4th firing with a one-game lead by surprising even Manager Bob Scheffing with a steal of home and a squeeze bunt against the second place New York Yankees.

After slipping to second place when they blew the opener of a showdown double-header at New York, losing 6-2 as southpaw Whitey Ford won his 15th for the Yankees, the Tigers bounced back on top with a 4-3, 10-inning decision in the nightcap. And Scheffing admitted he "was as surprised as anyone," when pinch runner Chico Fernandez stole home in the ninth, for a 3-2 lead and winning right-hander Frank Lary then clinched it with a two-out, two-strike squeeze bunt in the 10th.

That put Detroit in first place on July 4th for the first time since 1950. And it also gave the Tigers a 6-5 lead in the season as they kissed the Yankees goodbye until Sept. 1.

For the record, over the past 60 years 11 July 4 leaders have gone on to win the pennant in the American League. Thirty-eight have done it in the N.L. The Tigers, incidentally, finished second to New York in 1950.

Lary's perfect bunt came with two on against Bill Stafford (6-4), the loser in relief. Then relievers Hank Aguirre and Terry Fox saved it for Lary (12-4), with Fox getting Bill Skowron on a fly for the final out with the tying run on third base.

Lary, now 26-9 lifetime against New York, 3-1 this season, had a three-hit shutout until the eighth inning, when Roger Maris tied it 2-all with his 31st home run and moved 17 games ahead of Babe Ruth's record-60 pace of 1927. After Fernandez' steal of home against rookie Roland Sheldon, the Yanks tied it in their ninth on a pinch single by Hector Lopez.

The crowd of 74,246—largest in 14 years at Yankee Stadium, biggest of the year in the majors and 8,000 more than the entire N.L. drew — saw what they came to see when Ford (15-2) won his ninth in a row in the opener. The little lefty gave up five hits, one a home run by Dick Brown, walked but one and fanned 11, upping his A.L.-leading strikeout total to 119. The Yanks beat Don Mossi (9-2) with six runs in the fifth, five of them unearned. Elston Howard's three-run triple was the big blow.

3D STRAIGHT WIN

S.R. Romps Again In State Tourney

San Rafael's Merchants, loaded in batting power and pitching depth, loomed as the team to beat in the first half of the California State Semi-Pro Baseball Tournament today after last night's 8-2 triumph over the Walnut Creek Merchants at San Rafael's Albert Field.

In recording their third straight victory, the Merchants brought their tournament run production to 37 to only 3 for the opponents.

Last night's triumph, the second game on the Independence Day triple header, saw Manager Al Endriss' San Rafael gang slam out 13 hits to overcome an early 0-2 deficit. Dave Blasquez, the lefthander, and Lou Profumo combined to scatter 10 Walnut Creek hits.

San Rafael now awaits a showdown with another strong undefeated entry, the Humboldt Crabs of Eureka, who downed the Acme Carpets of Oakland 6-3 last night.

PLACERVILLE OUT

In yesterday's other game the Melody Ramblers of Richmond eliminated the Placerville Outlaws 8-4.

San Rafael's big inning last night was the fourth in which they romped for six hits. Doubles by big Lloyd Dickey and young Rich Curry, a leadoff single by Don Murray and another solo by Dan Raneri highlighted the uprising. Two wild pitches and a passed ball opened the gates for three of the runs.

While Blasquez and reliever Profumo, over the last five innings, blanked the visitors the rest of the way, the Merchants tacked on solo tallies in each of the sixth and eighth innings. In the sixth Don Lauters forced home the run by drawing a bases loaded walk and in the eighth Lauters stole home on a double steal.

BIG HITTERS

Curry, Steve Joses, Murray, Dickey and Raneri each had two hits, including a double each by Curry, Dickey, Raneri and Russ Adams.

After the game Endriss explained he substituted Profumo on the hill for Blasquez because Lou needed the work to keep sharp. Also, Walnut Creek began rapping Blasquez' deliveries with some authority.

Profumo got himself out of a minor jam in the seventh when he started a double play that went to Lauters at second base and on to Adams at first. Profumo allowed three hits in five frames and Blasquez seven in four.

In last night's other game the Humboldt Crabs were sparked by the potent bat of left fielder Jerry Pritchet who rocked a 330-foot homer to break a 3-3 tie in the fifth inning. Pritchet also had a double and single and three runs batted in.

The Crabs got great relief pitching from Bob Doig who came on in a bases-loaded situation in the top of the third and blanked the Carpets the rest of the way.

Seven Placerville errors allowed four unearned runs in the Melody Ramblers' 8-4 afternoon triumph.

SAN ANSELMO VS. RICHMOND TEAM TONIGHT

San Anselmo Ongaro Plumbers, buoyed by their Monday night 16-1 rout of Mill Valley that evened their record and one win and one loss, return to action tonight in the California Semi-Pro Baseball Tournament at Albert Park, San Rafael.

Manager Hal Clifford's Plumbers will duel the Melody Ramblers of Richmond in tonight's lone tourney game at 8 o'clock. The Ramblers yesterday eliminated the Placerville Outlaws, 8-4.

Brown, Hollingsworth Tie At Meadow Club

Wishard Brown and L. W. Hollingsworth each holed out the 19th hole to tie for first place yesterday in the Meadow Club's flag golf tournament.

There was a traffic jam for runner-up honors between Ray Johnson, Rod Mendes, Fred Figone, Dr. John Cann, Don Cockburn, Art Fay and Tony Novacic. Each reached the 19th green.

Dark Blammed For Mismanagement Of Giants' Confused Mound Staff

CONNOLLY

With their "heads bloody but unbowed" our tired, confused, out-generaled, but seemingly not discouraged Giants are home again, bringing with them a season's road record of 23 won, 16 lost and a home mark of 21 won, 18 lost to add up to a total of 44 games won and 34 lost.

Those figures represent the sum total of games won and lost for 77 games or one-half of the 1961 season's total of 154 games.

If you think that is real bad, take a peak down the National League standing and observe how the Cubs, Phils, St. Louis etc. have made out to date.

It is no cinch to appraise the Giants. Their aspirations and hopes go up and down like an elevator. One week they look and play like they're off to the splurge of triumph and the next they crumble like sweet cookies. No team can get hotter or colder in such a rush as our "Jernts." They even out-general themselves with the injection of pinch hitters and guys who are supposed to be relief pitchers.

I blame the over anxiousness of Manager Alvin Dark for the state of confusion among his pitchers. He's jamming them in and out of turn so fast that he doesn't even know who has or hasn't pitched the day before.

LAST SPRING Alvin gave us a very sane analysis of how he planned to conduct his pitching staff, in fact his entire ball club. But so far he has kicked the slats out of everything he promised. Let me name a few from quick memory:

(A) No infielders packing a .250 batting average could be regulars on the 1961 Giants. So far he's lucky if the entire infield is averaging .250 in the batting records, unless you count Orlando Cepeda as a regular infielder.

(B) Mike McCormick and Juan Marichal would do no relief work. They both have and in the case of the latter it was shameful Manager Dark didn't jerk him in the big six-run inning and pasting he took.

(C) McCovey will be my first sacker. To date that is about 50 per cent wrong. In fact Alvin has switched McCovey and Cepeda so often that Cepeda doesn't know from day to day where he's liable to be fielding. Thank God it hasn't bothered his hitting. And the "in and out again Finnigan" method seems to help Lovey Dovey.

(D) Harvey Kuenn, the $40,000 lemon, has been squeezed into play at third base and the outfield. But nothing to compare with the spectacular plans Manager Dark professed to have for him last spring when he claimed "Harvey will play third, second, first and the outfield and shortstop if we need him."

(E) After the big blowout at Phoenix when Cepeda and Bill Rigney were threatening to poke one another in the nose, Dark announced he would censor the statements of his players. But he forgot all about the radio and allowed Eddie Bressoud to get tarred and feathered by his chatter, unfavorable of course, about Candlestick Park.

SO IF you hold frosh manager Dark to his pre-season promises and threats, you've got to admit he is a little shy of being correct.

But if one wants to be strictly on the up and up and contrast the Giants of today against the Giants of last year, you have to admit Dark instilled in them fight and hustle. If he can't think for them, he can hardly be blamed.

My only peeve against Manager Dark is the way he handles pitchers. To use up a half dozen in one game trying to win and allow another pitcher to remain in the game and get scored on six times, doesn't make sense, unless he was aiming to punish the pitcher for the sins of his teammates.

There are 77 games remaining for the 1961 season and I wouldn't bet a dime the Giants do or do not win the pennant. All that can be said is that if the Giants play sensational ball the rest of the way they could hardly atone for some of the atrocious games they've lost by downright carelessness or stupidity. Take your pick.

Piersall Says You Can't Play Game 'Scared'

BALTIMORE (AP) — Fiery Jim Piersall of the Cleveland Indians, who charges umpires, opposing players and outfield fences with equal fervor, says "there's no other way to play the game."

"Too many guys play a scared kind of baseball," he told a meeting of the Baltimore Sports Reporters Association. "But there's one way to play. That's the way I play."

Piersall is currently sidelined with an injured knee, suffered last week when he ran into a Cleveland fence while chasing a line drive hit by Washington's Dale Long.

The 31-year-old outfielder also is nursing bruised feelings and a sore wrist since being hit June 25 by a pitch thrown by Jim Bunning of the Detroit Tigers.

"He's going to get it some day, if he doesn't quit throwing at the hitters," Piersall said.

Recalling his brief tussle with Bunning, Piersall said "that was the first fight I had a chance to win, and then the catcher knocked me down from behind."

NO ULCERS

Piersall, who had a nervous breakdown in the early 1950s, said he was happy to be able to "blow my top" and let off steam.

"I leave my problems at the ball park," he said. "I let the baseball writers and umpires get the ulcers."

Although he has been ejected from only one game this season—after the Bunning incident—Piersall said he still has his disagreements with the umpires.

"But I've learned not to say too much," he observed. "I have my say, and get it over with quick."

Then he added as an aside: "I could never be an umpire. I couldn't stand guys like me."

Palmer Wins $10,000 In Match With Player

ST. ANDREWS, Scotland (AP) —Arnold Palmer and Gary Player were en route to Southport, England, today to prepare for the British Open Golf Championship at Birkdale starting July 10, and Palmer's pockets were jingling.

The American won $10,000 in defeating Player by five strokes at St. Andrews yesterday in the first of a series of head-to-head matches, carding a two-under-par 70 to 75 for the stocky South African, who won the Masters Championship this year by a stroke from Palmer.

The match turned into a nine-hour marathon as it was taped by the American Broadcasting Company for a later showing in the United States.

U. S. Cinder Team Headed For Beating, Scribe Fears

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The United States is heading for a prestige-jolting major track defeat by Russia because it's sending its second-best to compete, a prominent sportswriter said today.

Ralph Alexander, president of the Track and Field Writers Assn. of America, urged a quick change of signals by Amateur Athletic Union officials. He wrote in the Los Angeles Examiner:

"This nation, which plans to send a second-class team, can't hope to defeat the steadily improving Russians in a critical international contest July 15 and 16 at Moscow, according to a statistical study of times and distances."

Unless seven of the nation's top athletes compete, the U. S. will lose its first major men's track meet in history, Alexander said his study showed.

The athletes turned down the trip. Some said the AAU insisted they make a month's trip, competing also in three other meets in Europe, and they couldn't afford that length of time away from their jobs.

The seven without whom the Americans will lose, Alexander's comparisons showed, are Hal Connolly, world record holder in the hammer throw; Parry O'Brien, two-time Olympic shotput champion Al Oerter, two-time Olympic discus champion; Ron Morris, silver medalist in the Olympic pole vault and top-ranking vaulter; Otis Davis, Olympic 400-meter champion and world record holder; Dallas Long, world record shotputter; and Bill Alley, America's top javelin thrower.

Whittaker Scores Regatta Victory

Bill Whittaker of Sausalito piloted his Finicula to victory yesterday in the Northern California Finn Assn.'s regatta on Richardson Bay.

Following Whittaker over the five-mile course in order were Jim Hill, Eric Petersen, Nels Ericksen and Bill Bellamey. Tim Sawyer and Al Nelson did not finish.

Forty-Niners Lose One Rookie, Gain One

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — One rookie was added and another subtracted from the roster of the San Francisco 49er football squad yesterday.

Dean Hinshaw, 235-pound tackle and co-captain of the 1960 Stanford team, informed the club a knee ailment will prevent him from playing.

At the same time, Everisto Nino, a 6-foot 4, 243-pound tackle from East Texas State, notified the 49ers he has decided to forego a final year of collegiate competition and will report to training camp.

BALANCED PERFORMANCE

Hobie Landrith of San Francisco Giants is balanced on one arm as he is forced at second base in third inning of second game of yesterday's doubleheader with the Cubs at Chicago. Pitcher Billy Loes had grounded to pitcher Jack Curtis whose relay to second was in time to nail Hobie. Cubs won second game 3-2 after Giants romped in opener 19-3. (AP Wirephoto)

Elgin Gets 5-Year Contract; $250,000

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The Los Angeles Lakers of the National Basketball Assn. have signed Elgin Baylor to a five-year basketball contract for about $250,000.

Baylor, former star of the University of Seattle, had one of his greatest seasons in 1960-61, breaking the NBA single game scoring record with 71 points. He averaged more than 34 points per game

Plans Comeback

SYDNEY, Australia (AP)—Jimmy Carruthers, 32, former world bantamweight boxing champion who retired undefeated in 1954, said today he plans to return to the ring as a lightweight.

Braves Buy Antonelli To Bolster Hill Staff

MILWAUKEE (AP)—Southpaw Johnny Antonelli, a bitter disappointment for Cleveland in a brief tour in the American League, is rejoining the Milwaukee Braves, the club which signed him for a fat bonus 13 years ago.

The purchase of Antonelli, 31, from the Indians for an undisclosed amount of cash was announced last night in a Milwaukee move to bolster a sagging pitching staff.

Antonelli was signed for a reported $65,000 bonus by the Braves, then in Boston, in 1948. He was traded to the Giants, then in New York, in 1954, winning 21 games that season. He won 20 in 1956 and 19 in 1959.

Last season, Antonelli slumped to a 6-7 record with the Giants and complained about inability to pitch in San Francisco's windy Candlestick Park.

He and outfielder Willie Kirkland were obtained by Cleveland in an off-season deal which sent former American League batting champion Harvey Kuenn to the Giants.

Antonelli carried a major league record of 125 victories and 106 defeats to Cleveland. However, he was 0-4 with the Indians, surrendering 68 hits in 49 innings and posting a 6.43 earned run average. He has failed to go the distance in 14 straight starts, losing nine, since May 15, 1960.

In New York, where he went with the Indians after their twilight game in Baltimore, Antonelli said he expects to report to the Braves tonight.

"I'm sorry to be leaving the Indians but I'm glad to get a chance with a team like the Braves," he said. "I just wasn't doing the job for Cleveland and maybe getting back to the National League will change it. I feel fine and I can't explain why I haven't been able to win."

LOBSTER TAILS Mediterranean lend an epicurean touch to the outdoor barbecue. But they are easy to do and especially delicious when cooked with a marinade that features wine, olive oil, lemon juice, seasoning and a touch of garlic.

Lobster Tails Make Into Gourmet Feast

From all evidence at hand, it would seem that the outdoor barbecue brings out the gourmet in every man. With the finesse of an international chef, Dad goes about creating his epicurean specialties for family consumption.

For instance, Dr. Walter J. Raine of Richmond, Calif., devised this original recipe for Broiled Lobster Tails Mediterranean which was so good that it won him a prize in the annual Kaiser Cook-Off.

Next time you barbecue lobster tails, try preparing them with this pungent marinade made of white wine, olive oil, lemon juice, salt, cayenne pepper and garlic. And line the firebox with quilted cooking foil. This helps to reflect maximum heat and also keeps the barbecue pit neat and shipshape.

BROILED LOBSTER TAILS MEDITERRANEAN

- 12 lobster tails (in shells)
- 1 cup dry white wine
- ½ cup olive oil
- ¼ cup fresh lemon juice
- 1 teaspoon salt
- ¼ teaspoon cayenne pepper
- 1 clove pressed garlic
- ½ cup grated Parmesan cheese
- quilted cooking foil

Line firebox of grill with quilted cooking foil. Let coals burn down until covered with a gray ash.

In a 1½ quart bowl, combine wine, olive oil, lemon juice, salt, cayenne pepper and garlic. Slit the lobster tails along the full length of the membrane. Remove membrane; spread open and remove intestinal vein.

Brush meat thoroughly with marinating mixture. Place shell side down on the grill, 2 inches over the coals; broil 6 to 8 minutes. Brush each tail again with the mixture, turn and broil 6 minutes more. Turn meat side up and sprinkle 1 teaspoon cheese over each lobster tail. When cheese has melted, remove to warm platter. Serve with lemon wedges and hot garlic bread.

Wieners Ideal For Kabobs

Wieners are ideal for kabobs. Since they're fully cooked, there's no concern about grilling time . . . when they're hot, they're ready to eat! Expertly seasoned, these all meat links are flavorful convenience meats that combine deliciously with many fruits and vegetables.

One delicious kabob meal to eat in a bun alternates wieners with onions, green peppers and cherry tomatoes. Cut the wieners in fourths and the onions in wedges. (If you remove a few of the center pieces, the wedges are easily pierced with a skewer.) Cut the green pepper in half, remove seeds and then cut in pieces about one and one half to two inches square. The onions and green peppers may be parboiled before threading on skewers if you prefer them well done instead of crispy.

As the kabobs grill, baste them with a barbecue sauce for an added flavor touch.

WIENER KABOB SAUCE

- 2 tablespoons butter
- 2 tablespoons chopped onion
- 1 can (8-oz.) tomato sauce
- 1 tablespoon prepared mustard
- ½ teaspoon cloves
- ½ teaspoon Worcestershire sauce

Melt butter in saucepan. Add finely chopped onion and saute 5 minutes. Add remaining ingredients and heat. Baste wieners with sauce as they grill or serve with kabobs in buns.

EVERYONE'S A master chef when it comes to threading favorite foods on skewers for kabobs. The knowing hostess will set a tray next to the grill and let each guest create his own. Grilling wiener kabobs is cookout fun that combines artistry and good eating.

Hot Slaw Relish Is Real Racy

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

The seven sweets and seven sours of Pennsylvania-Dutch tables have inspired a racy accompaniment to a simple meat course. Recently tested, this Hot Slaw Relish is one we will make many times. Try it and see how it stacks up with your family's and your own taste buds.

Frankfurters and boiled new potatoes "go good" with this sweet-sour cabbage. One reminder about the franks: they need only to be plunged into boiling water and allowed to simmer, covered, for 8 to 10 minutes. They should never be boiled.

After scrubbing the new potatoes in cold water, pare a wide band from around the middle of each and steam the spuds in their jackets. Don't drown them in water! You can steam a pound of new potatoes in as little as half a cup of water with a teaspoon of salt. Keep the saucepan on high heat until the water bubbles again, then turn the heat low for the 25 or 30 minutes of cooking they'll need. If any water remains, drain it off, and shake the potatoes in the saucepan over low heat for about a minute so they will dry.

We find this Hot Slaw Relish tastes delicious also with roast beef and buttered noodles and with broiled or pan-fried steak and creamed potatoes. Keep it in mind, too, when you are roasting a leg of lamb or baking half a ham because it should do a lot for some of the leftover meat that is usually sliced thin and served cold.

HOT SLAW RELISH

- ⅓ cup firmly-packed light brown sugar
- 2 teaspoons salt
- ½ teaspoon celery seed
- ⅓ cup cider vinegar
- ¼ cup corn oil
- 2 tablespoons horseradish mustard
- 1 head (2 pounds) green cabbage

In a large heavy skillet, stir together the brown sugar, salt, celery seed, vinegar, oil and mustard. With a large sharp kitchen knife, shred the cabbage; there should be about 8 cups firmly packed. Add the shredded cabbage to the mixed seasonings in the skillet and toss together. Simmer 15 to 20 minutes or until the cabbage is as tender as you like and flavors are blended.

Note: If the relish is to be served sandwich-style with frankfurters in buns, there will be enough of the hot slaw for about 12 franks.

Simple Dessert

A Massachusetts restaurant is famous for its desserts, and one of these is ice-cream balls rolled in coconut and served with hot chocolate sauce. Use a quart of ice cream for 8 servings, and roll the 8 ice-cream balls in a can (3½ ounces) of coconut; count on needing about 1½ cups of chocolate sauce.

Marinite Offers 2 Favorite Recipes

By M. E. VON KAHL

When a dog bites a man, that's news; but, when a man takes up baking as a hobby, that's often good news in the recipe department. Compelled by illness to resign his job at the sheriff's office several years ago, J. L. Chase found himself with plenty of spare time and orders to spend it taking life easy.

In his Portola Gardens hame at 10 Garden Avenue, San Rafael, Chase found himself experimenting in the kitchen with cakes and cookies. Here are two of his favorite cookie recipes:

APPLE COOKIES

- 1 cup shortening
- ½ cup white sugar
- 1 cup brown sugar
- 1 teaspoon vanilla
- ½ teaspoon cloves
- ½ teaspoon cinnamon
- 2 eggs, beaten
- 2½ cups flour
- 1 teaspoon soda
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1 cup chopped walnuts
- 1 cup thick, unsweetened applesauce

Creaf shortening and sugars; add vanilla and beat until light and fluffy. Add eggs and beat again. Sift together the flour, soda, salt and spices, and stir into the creamed mixture; save ¼ cup of the flour to mix with the nuts before adding them to the dough. Drop from a teaspoon onto greased cookie sheet and bake 10 to 12 minutes at 375 degrees.

DATE ICE-BOX COOKIES

- 1 cup shortening
- 2 cups brown sugar
- 2 beaten eggs
- 1 teaspoon vanilla
- 1 cup nuts
- 3½ cups flour
- 1 teaspoon soda
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1 cup dates

Cream shortening and sugar; add vanilla and beat until light and fluffy. Sift together the dry ingredients and set aside until nuts have been chopped fine and dates chopped or cut with scissors into very fine pieces. Sift ½ cup of the flour mixture over the dates and nuts, coating them lightly. Then add the flour mixture to the creamed mixture alternately with the nuts and dates until all have been thoroughly mixed. Shape the dough into a long loaf; wrap in waxed paper and chill several hours until firm. Slice thinly and bake 10 minutes at 375 degrees.

Chase has discovered also that if he mixes one tablespoon of granulated sugar with a pie-crust recipe, the result is a browner, flakier crust.

THIS HEPPLEWHITE mirror which once belonged to President George Washington is being presented to the White House by Dr. C. Ray Franklin of Lincolndale, N.Y. The mirror, with pediment and ramp top and crowned by a gold spread eagle, carries a likeness of Washington. The mirror is among the many items acquired for the White House by the Fine Arts Committee.

Gifts For White House

HYANNIS PORT, Mass. (AP)—Furnishings and art belonging to five presidents—from Washington to Lincoln—are returning to the White House.

The fine arts committee, formed by Mrs. John F. Kennedy, Monday announced a long list of gifts, loans, bequests and discoveries.

"It was the committee's decision to search primarily for American furnishings so that the White House could become a museum of our country's heritage and a testimonial to American fine arts and cabinet-making.

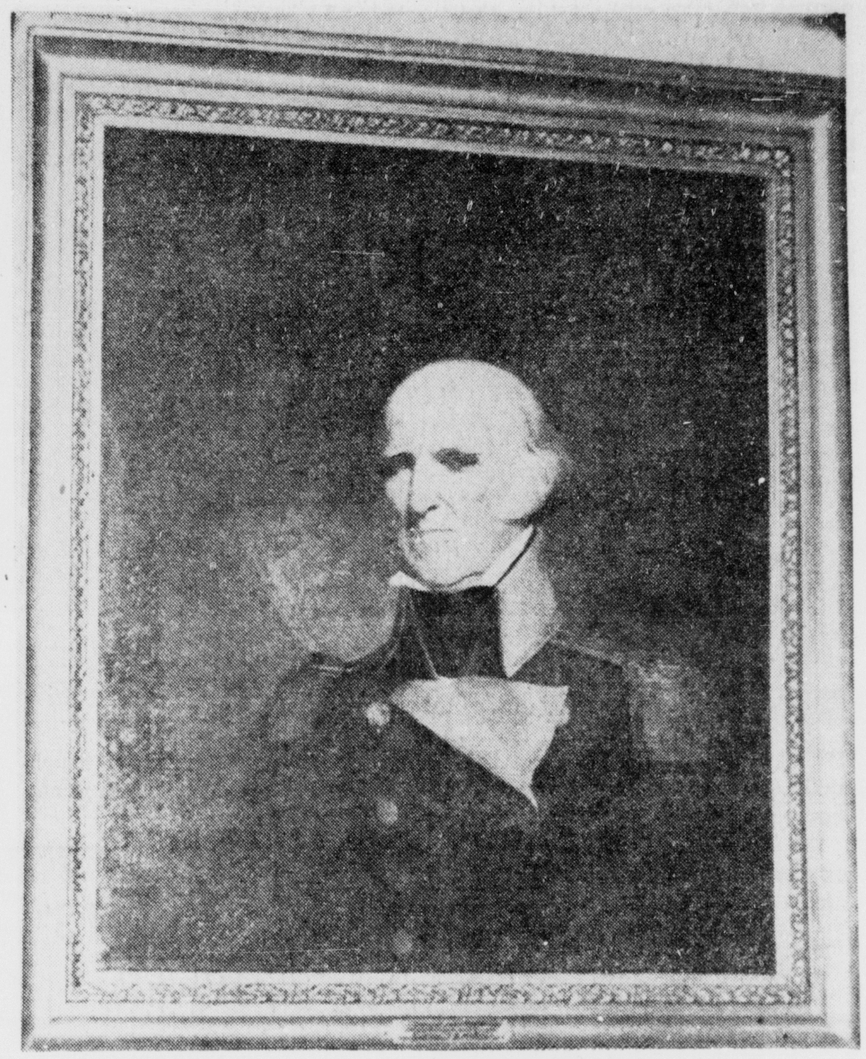
Great effort was made to obtain objects associated with past presidents and American historical figures," the announcement said.

The objects include a tufted chair from Lincoln's bedroom, Dolly Madison's Empire sofa, James Madison's medicine chest, James Monroe's Bellange armchair and piertable, a Hepplewhite mirror bearing a likeness of George Washington and a bust of Martin Van Buren.

Secretary of the Treasury and Mrs. Douglas Dillon donated furniture "sufficient to make an Empire room," the announcement said. Dolly Madison's Empire sofa is one of the pieces. Mrs. Dillon is a committee member.

Mrs. Charles Englehard, another member, contributed enough early American furniture for a 19th century dining room.

The Sheraton sofa on which Daniel Webster once rested and an early 19th century sofa owned by Nellie Custis also are among the items. There is a vast collection of chairs, tables, needlework, chests, engravings, vases and tablewear.



THIS PAINTING of General John Stark, a hero of the American Revolution, painted by Samuel F. B. Morse is part of a collection acquired by the Fine Arts Commission, established by Mrs. Kennedy. This anonymous gift to the White House is one of six paintings and hangs in the first floor hall. The commission was established to furnish and decorate the White House with art objects suited to its place in history as the home of American Presidents. (AP Wirephotos)

San Anselmo will be the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Alexander Baumsteiger, who were married Saturday afternoon at St. Catherine's Church in Burlingame. The bride, the former Diane Elizabeth Marquis, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederic A. Roehr of San Mateo.

She was given in marriage by her step-father for the nuptials which were performed by the Rev. John Ward. Her long white gown of embroidered organza ended in a chapel length train. Her sister Susan was maid of honor and other attendants were Mrs. Richard Perry of Burlingame, Mari Morris of Lafayette, Cynthia Marquis of Los Angeles and Gail Boden of Hermosa Beach. All wore pale pink chiffon over pink taffeta dresses. Cindy Earl of San Francisco served as flower girl and Timothy Baumsteiger of Mill Valley was the ring bearer.

Functional Room Helps Small Home

A functional living area added to the rear of a four-room house is one of the most economical ways for a family to gain needed space.

This living area can be much more than the conventional family room. In addition to having recreational features, such as a TV set and refreshment bar, it can also have a studio type couch that converts into a bed for overnight guests.

A dining set with a table that folds against the wall is another valuable asset, since most four-room houses have small kitchens and little dining space. The chairs from the set can be used around the room.

Another feature that fits well into the informal theme of a living area is a pre-fab fireplace. These can be installed economically, yet give the house a quality appearance.

To highlight the fireplace, use a durable woodgrain paneling on the walls adjacent to it. One of the most practical is random plank, which has a washable plastic surface that never requires refinishing. It can be installed right over the old walls without any lengthy preparation.

Include plenty of storage space in the new living area, since a four-room house seldom has enough for a growing family.

With careful planning, an addition such as this can serve as family room, guest room, dining room and play room.

The first luncheon after the summer recess will be held in September at the rectory, the home of Rev. and Mrs. D. M. Hammond.

Sardine Filling

Next time you are making sardine sandwiches, try mashing the sardines with butter and flavor with lemon juice. Use about a quarter cup of soft butter for a regular-size can of sardines. No butter will be needed on the sandwich bread with this spread, but you can add lettuce and mayonnaise if you like.

Regal Look Is Noted In New Bridal Gowns

By PAT HERMAN

NEW YORK (UPI)—The bridal gowns this season are going to be fit for princesses—and queens. Bridal designers note that the unadorned regal styles worn by Britain's Princess Margaret and Belgian's Queen Fabiola have had their impact on bridal gowns to be worn by American girls.

"The public is tired of ruffles," said Murray Hamburger, designer and manufacturer. "We feature the gown that is a simple unadorned sheath in front, with a train that explodes or flares out in back." He said that this is achieved by placing a stay in the skirt which hold the front smooth and allows the back to appear full.

The house of Bianchi noted that the formal, regal look has extended to bridesmaids' dresses as well.

SIMPLE LINES

"Line is all important and extremely simple," said the house's designer. "This allows for use of richer fabrics like peault de soie. The soft sheath, which is exaggerated at the hip line and tapers narrow at the hem is going to be popular. The gown may have a separate square train so that the line of the dress is not disturbed.

Mrs. Jacqueline Kennedy's look also has had its influence on bridal fashions. The magagazine Modern Bride said that it had named one of its gowns in her honor. It has a blouson back, simple jewel neckline and full train. The easy fitting look which she has made popular is achieved by tabs which fit over the waist without hugging it.

One of the magazine's bridal consultants noted these trends in bridal wear: a return to the more traditional gown; a controlled line even with wide skirts; panelled fronts; full trains, many of which fall from the shoulder and some which are separate from the gown; fabrics such as silk alpaca and rich satins and brocades; lavish use of lace appliques as trimming.

REGAL LOOK

Here are the other features of regal sheath front, full trained bridal gown:

Necklines are either completely covered or very shallowly scooped. The high neckline is coming back.

Sleeves tend to be long. They are usually at least elbow length. The Oriental type unfitted sleeve is popular.

Veils. Many of them tend to be bouffant, flaring upwards and out. Others are long or fingertip length. Some are trimmed with wax orange blossoms.

Trimming. Lace appliques are more lavish than ever. Pearl encrusted lace is popular.

Fabrics. One house said that 90 per cent of its gowns were made of varieties of silk such as peau de soie and the heavier peault de soie. Satins are not mentioned as frequently.

Delinquents Were Neglected Babies, Found World Hostile

"I'm worried about my baby's future," a mother writes. "He is one month old. Will he be a teen-age delinquent? Will he lie, steal and fight? Or will he become a good citizen? Am I silly to be concerned while he's so tiny?"

No, you aren't silly. Your son's future lies in your hands. Do a good job with him now and you will have little to worry about later. Let's look at the backgrounds of today's juvenile delinquents. You'll see what I mean. Our present delinquents were neglected in babyhood. Probably their mothers didn't welcome them. They cried by the hour. They had health problems which dragged on and on. As babies they did not learn that the world is a safe, friendly place. To them the world was unpleasant, even hostile.

Most of today's delinquents were mistreated in childhood. Their normal misbehavior was beaten down brutally, or endlessly indulged. They didn't develop good consciences. They felt that the world was against them. They still feel that way.

School brought them more trouble. Most of them failed in reading. They were quarrelsome and disobedient. The nicer kids shunned them. Teachers disliked them. They fought back. In the upper grades they played hookey. They lied and stole. In their early teens they formed gangs. Now they are rampaging young gangsters. As I say, the causes go back to their babyhood. The symptoms of trouble were plain to be seen, early in their lives.

So give your baby your loving attention. Try to give him consistent guidance in his childhood; use the mildest punishments possible. Expand his freedom as fast as he proves himself responsible. Raise him to take an active part in a good church. Then he won't be delinquent, I promise.

READERS' FORUM

(Q)—"Why is the percentage of delinquency among our older teen-agers so high? What is wrong with the kids? —C.S.

(A) They were war babies. A larger than normal proportion of them did not get the loving care and guidance all children need. They'll be a problem generation all their lives.

What's Happened To Rumpus Room?

What ever happened to the old-fashioned basement rumpus room?

Today we hear about family rooms and recreation rooms, but seldom does anyone refer to a rumpus room. Is it just because the public has become more sophisticated in using a new term to describe the same type room, or has the function of the room actually changed?

Some homeowners criticize the modern family or recreation room as being "foo fancy." They claim that the room is decorated as well or better than any other room in the house to impress guests. Expensive refreshment bars and hi-fi sets are installed, and sometimes children even are barred from the room unless an adult is there to supervise their activity.

On the other hand, the rumpus room of 20 years ago was put to rugged use. Children used it regularly to "rough house" and other members of the family set up art and hobby work without worrying too much about the looks of the room. The rumpus room definitely wasn't a showplace, but it was a room in which members of the family could relax and enjoy themselves.

The family or recreation rooms of the 1960s that most resemble the rumpus room are those which are designed to withstand hard wear. They are the ones with an easy-to-maintain interior that will retain its original appearance for many years.

Durable paneling is ideal for a basement room because the finish is washable and permanent. The paneling's tempered hardboard base is dense, splinter-free and specially treated for hardness and durability. Children's handprints, scuff marks and other causes of deterioration can be wiped right off the paneling with a damp or sudsy cloth.

One of the most popular types for a basement room is a high-fidelity woodgrain paneling. It comes in 16-inch by 8-foot planks, which have tongue-and-groove edges to simplify fitting. Simple metal clips and wallboard adhesive are used to secure the planks which can be applied over old wall framing.

Planks are available also in 11 colors. The same colors also come in 16-inch square blocks, which are ideal for accent walls or ceilings.

Call it what you may—family, recreation or rumpus room—but make it practical so that it will render maximum service. The baked melamine plastic surface resembles the finish on a refrigerator, and is just as easy to clean.

A LA EMILY POST

Rules And Regulations Of Social Correspondence

CHICAGO (UPI) — The rules and regulations of social correspondence are less complex than they seem. Here are the basics, as outlined by etiquette authorities.

The formal invitation is the simplest to issue and accept. If handwritten, it should be in ink on white, cream er tan paper only, and always in the third person. Any good stationer can suggest the phrasing.

Shower invitations should be handwritten on note paper or special invitation stock. Color is unimportant. Every invitation should state such pertinent information as where, when, and why, and include an r.s.v.p. or "please reply" if an answer is expected.

Say whatever you like on congratulatory notes, but make every effort to send personalized, hand-written ones.

Thank-you notes for gifts never should be printed. Formal note paper is preferred for acknowledging wedding gifts, but informal note paper is appropriate. Each gift rates a prompt, individual note.

If you're thrilled with the gift, say so. If the gift makes you cringe, pick out some feature—color or shape—you can praise. Don't say even to your best friend, "Thanks for the coffee percolator, it's the fourth I've received.

What's the proper form for replying to invitations?

Using the telephone is taboo if it's a written invitation. If your hostess wanted a telephone reply, she would have called you.

If it's a formal invitation, always reply as requested, within 24 hours if possible, within three days at the most.

The acceptance must be handwritten and may copy the form and wording of the invitation itself on unruled note paper.

Informal invitations to showers, parties, and so on, set the tone of the reply. If the invitation says, "Why don't you and John crawl out of your cave and join us for bridge next Wednesday at 8 p.m.?" you may reply, "By a happy coincidence our hibernation ends this weekend and we'd love to join you for bridge next Wednesday at 8 p.m."

Incidentally, all acceptances should repeat the date, time and place.

Peach-Meat Idea

Hot cling peaches make a perfect accompaniment for lamb or chicken. Sprinkle well-drained canned peach halves lightly with sugar and your favorite spice. Broil until tinged with brown, and serve piping hot.

10 Billion Estimate For Remodeling

American home owners will spend nearly ten billion dollars to have their homes remodeled by professionals in 1961, says a leading magazine of the home building industry.

One of the biggest slices of this total will be for kitchens, since most families agree the kitchen is the most important room in the house.

Another reason home owners often remodel their kitchens first is the availability of low-cost financing with an FHA-insured loan.

These loans, available in amounts up to $3,000 with no down payment, may include all required construction work, permanently built-in.

Today's built-in range for example, qualifies for an FHA loan when included in kitchen modernization plans because it is considered a genuine home improvement that increases the resale value of a home.

Retarded Children Helped By Dancing

RIVERSIDE (UPI) — "Dancing is fun," the little girl said, smiling at her dancing teacher.

The response doesn't seem unusual for a 12-year-old at a dancing class, but for this little girl it was very important.

These were practically the first words she had spoken since joining dancing master Gordon Ayres' weekly class at the Crest Haven School for Retarded Children in Arlington.

The results of the classes have been impressive. Last December, the California Council for Retarded Children unanimously passed a resolution calling for use of dancing as a means of therapy for mentally retarded children and appointed Ayres as state-wide coordinator for the mushrooming program.

Ayres acts as liaison between the Arthur Murray Studios, who donate the instructors, and the private, parent-sponsored schools in which they work.

His job is a big one since new classes are being established in Santa Ana, Pomona, Long Beach and Sacramento to add to the ones already in operation in San Bernardino, Van Nuys, San Francisco, Fresno and Palo Alto.

Ayres has been teaching his class on a voluntary basis since March, 1959, when Mrs. Camille Stoner, principal of Crest Haven, first broached the idea. She had heard of Ayres' dancing classes at Camarillo, Patten and Metropolitan state hospitals.

He explained that dancing is a means of expression for the children who are badly repressed. Ballroom dancing also offers advantages over ballet and tap in that it stresses social participation..

The children learn the social graces and take pride in wearing their best clothes to class. Most important, dancing gives them a sense of "accomplishment and purpose" which Ayres feels is fundamental in their rehabilitation.

He likes to mention the one girl who had such poor coordination when she first entered the class that she had resigned herself to being capable of practically nothing.

Today she can sew and even draw a little—and most important for her she is one of the "rhythm masters" whom Ayres calls upon to lead the class in clapping.

Rings Go

Glasses that spill soda pop, milk, or other sticky liquids will leave no permanent rings to mar the appearance of your kitchen countertop if it is made of ceramic tile. The waterproof and stainproof qualities of ceramic tile were built in and baked in during manufacture and remain without special treatment during tile's long maintenance-free life.

Use Charcoal

To keep the refrigerator odorless, place a small piece of charcoal in each corner.

JOAN HARRISON, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Harrison of Terra Linda, was graduated last month from the Dental Nurses College of California, San Francisco. She is a graduate of San Rafael High School and attended College of Marin and San Francisco State.

A-POWERED MERCHANT SHIP TESTS

Savannah May Get First Trial Runs Later This Month

WASHINGTON (AP)—The nuclear - powered merchant ship Savannah may be given her first tests later this month or in August, and make trial runs at sea shortly thereafter.

This was indicated by programming for the world's first nuclear-powered merchantman reported by an Atomic Energy Commission spokesman yesterday.

The Savannah, expected to be able to cruise 250,000 miles one one fueling, is ready for sea at the New York Shipbuilding yards at Camden, N. J., where she was built.

HEARINGS

Hearings on safety factors of the nuclear power plant of the 35-million-dollar Savannah have been completed and indications are that no reason was found for delay.

A report on the hearings and recommendations of the examiner, Samuel W. Jensch, are to be submitted to the five members of the AEC for action early this month.

Indications are that the commission will approve Jensch's recommendations for the program of trials.

FIVE POINTS

That calls for:

1. Loading the Savannah with nuclear fuel at Camden.
2. Turning on of the nuclear power plant and operation at "zero power"—such low power that virtually no steam would be generated. This test also will be made at Camden. The two Camden tests are expected to take about six weeks.
3. Movement of the Savannah from Camden to a berth at Yorktown, Va., under conventional power — two boiler plants in her hold to supply steam for propulsion.
4. Firing the nuclear plant up to full power at Yorktown.
5. Sea trials under nuclear power.

The Savannah will remain at the Yorktown base for about two months then return to Camden. There finishing touches will be made in her construction—removal of protective coverings from interior walls and decks and installation of furniture—to put her in shape for service.

The Young Lady Is Veterinarian

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Alverda Graff McDannald's wardrobe contains more coveralls than street clothes, and she and her husband Paul have a favorite dinner hour of 10 p.m.

That's because she's a veterinarian, and 75 per cent of her practice is with large animals. Officials at Ohio State University, from which she was graduated in 1958, think she may be the only woman veterinarian in the state with a major large animal practice.

Her husband, who breeds and shows registered Arabian horses, accompanies her on night calls, one of the reasons for their usually late suppers. Another is that both enjoy devoting free evenings to horseback riding.

2nd Milk Cow Slaughtered

Marshall rancher Alvin R. Gambonini reported to sheriff's deputies yesterday that for the second time in six months one of his milk cows has been slaughtered and a part of the carcass stolen.

Gambonini, whose ranch is seven miles west of Marshall in the Salmon Creek area, said he found the slaughtered animal in a pasture about a mile from his ranch house.

One of his milk cows was slaughtered in a similar manner about six months ago, Gambonini reported.

Regulate Fund-Raisers

MINNEAPOLIS (UPI)— A new Minnesota law, effective July 1 makes is illegal for a charity to solicit money in the state without registering first with the secretary of state. The registration also must include a financial statement.

Pt. Reyes Park Won't Appear In Thunder Clap

After the blunt statements of visiting congressmen last weekend about the inevitable establishment of a Point Reyes Seashore, there might be some concern that a seashore park will appear in a clap of thunder, full grown, scattering ranchers right and left.

This, of course, is not the case. Even if legislation passed the Senate and the House tomorrow, which isn't possible, the present proposal is merely an authorizing bill. There is no money to buy a single cow, much less a whole ranch.

The current situation is this:

The Senate Subcommittee on Public Lands has completed its public hearings. The inspection trip to the peninsula last weekend was the final act necessary prior to action. Chairman Sen. Alan Bible said he hoped to be able to call an executive session of the subcommittee later this month to decide what to recommend. He was frank to say he believed the recommendation would be for the full 53,000 acre park.

After subcommittee decision, the bill goes to the full Senate Interior and Insular Affairs Committee. It will probably get quick approval there. Then on to the Senate floor.

Senator Bible felt it has "an excellent chance of finishing its journey through the Senate" before adjournment, about Labor Day.

In the House, the Subcommittee on Parks already has held a hearing for opponents of the bill. Tomorrow, it will hear witnesses from the Interior Department.

While this will not necessarily wind up hearings of the subcommittee, it probably will conclude them, according to Rep. Clem Miller. Then will come similar consideration in the subcommittee House floor. Then to the President for signature.

One other thing may delay the House measure. The bill setting up the Cape Cod National Seashore already has passed the Senate. It won't even come up before House committee for at least two weeks. There has been an understanding that the Cape Cod bill will precede the Point Reyes bill.

Adding to this the fact the House has been less enthused about increasing the number of parks, because of future expense, makes it likely the Point Reyes bill will not pass the House this session. But Miller is "certain" action will be taken on it next year.

Thus if authorization can't be made before next year, an appropriation bill won't even get before the Congress earlier than 1963. If it passes then, and it's likely to go over into 1964, there still will be a long stretch of surveying, legal maneuverings, and other preparations before actual acquisition starts.

It seems likely, therefore, that at the earliest, the cows of Point Reyes won't be bothered for five years or more.

No clap of thunder.

THREE MINUTES A DAY

By JAMES KELLER

KEEP AN EYE ON YOUR GOAL

A plane strike did not prevent one man in Los Angeles from flying to New York. He arrived there via the North Pole and Copenhagen.

All trans-continental planes leaving California were grounded and trains could not get the anxious man to New York on time. He decided the best solution was to board a Scandinavian jet leaving for Denmark on a course that took him over the Pole.

After a nine-hour layover in Copenhagen he caught another jet bound for New York.

The roundabout flight cost him an extra $500 and involved an additional 6,700 miles of air travel but he reached his destination on time.

A person with a big and meaningful goal involving either his temporal or eternal interest shows far more daring and resourcefulness than a person who has no particular aim in life.

Keep your eye on the most important destination of your life and you will undergo any sacrifice to be ready for your appearance before God.

"Give an account of your stewardship: for now you can be steward no longer." (Luke 16:2)

Keep me mindful, O Holy Spirit, of why I am here, where I came from and where I am going.

Nothing Stirs Office Doldrums Like A Newly-Hired Secretary

NEW YORK (AP) — Nothing stirs the average office out of its usual summer doldrums more than the hiring of a new steographer.

This is particularly so if the girl is pretty, and engineered like an adolescent's dream. Her arrival creates more excitement than anything since management surrendered unconditionally to the coffee break.

The career wolves and the seasonal bachelors converge on her desk from all corners. Everybody suddenly needs to borrow a pencil, some paper clips, an extra typewriter ribbon—any excuse to get acquainted.

The fact the new girl can type only 25 words a minute under full steam worries nobody but the boss.

Here is the impact she has on some of the office characters:

The office boy—He comes in 15 minutes early so he can slip unnoticed on her desk a rose he has stolen from a neighbor's bush and wrapped in a poem he spent half the night writing.

The hypochondriac — His idea of courtship is to lend her some of his medicines. "Try this new miracle pill," he urges. "It came out only last week, and it made me feel wonderful."

The junior executive — He hasn't dictated a letter in months, but now he suddenly develops a heavy correspondence. He even writes letters to strangers in the phone book, so he can spend more time with the new girl.

THE FATHERLY bookkeeper—"A young girl like you has to be pretty careful these days," he murmurs, clutching her hand in his. "You can't believe a word some of these jokers tell you, but you can trust me."

The boss's spinster secretary—"Everybody talks about how young she is," she tells her cronies spitefully. "But she isn't all that young."

BUT THE romantic ardor that swept the office dies down as abrutly as it arose. For after three months the new girl announces she is leaving to marry the boy back home. Everyone has to dig down to buy her some farewell gifts—which include a bottle of tranquilizers from the hypochondriac. His last words: "Honeymoons can be so tense."

All then wait expectantly to see what the next new girl will look like.

California Highway Patrol headquarters lacked a home. Ousted from the court house annex building being razed to make room for Albert's Department Store, it sought to get into the old Coleman School and the state asked that school personnel get out at once.

Sunny Hills No Place For School

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

The United States Constitution gives us the right to own and possess land and private property, but it would seem that the San Anselmo School District trustees have little regard for this sacred gift from God. At least in the case of Sunny Hills Orphanage. This high and mighty force want to put the orphanage out of business.

Can't the San Anselmo School District trustees see the rapid growth taking place in the West? Can't they foresee Sir Francis Drake Blvd. as a main highway to Olema and Highway No. 1? And can't they see a commercial business strip?

Is this any place for more schools? Do we want our schools in business districts and on highways? I think not.

There are plenty of hill sites in San Anselmo for schools and walking the hills would be good for the children.

"THE UNDERSIGNED STRONGLY URGE YOU TO FURTHER ENCOURAGE COORDINATED TRANSPORTATION IN THE BAY AREA BY VETOING S. B. 1273 ($500,000 ENGINEERING STUDY FOR SECOND SAN FRANCISCO - MARIN BRIDGE). AS MARIN COUNTY RESIDENTS WE CONCUR WITH THE POSITION TAKEN BY THE SAN FRANCISCO PLANNING AND RENEWAL ASSOCIATION.

"WE WOULD FURTHER RECOMMEND AGAINST THIS MEASURE FOR THE FOLLOWING REASONS: THE PROPOSED BAY AREA RAPID TRANSIT SYSTEM WILL HANDLE TRAFFIC EQUIVALENT TO AT LEAST EIGHT NEW AUTOMOBILE LANES IN EACH DIRECTION; AND THE INSTALLATION OF THIS FACILITY ON THE GOLDEN GATE BRIDGE HAS BEEN FOUND FEASIBLE BY THE NATION'S PRE-EMINENT BRIDGE ENGINEERING FIRM.

"IT WOULD THEREFORE SEEM THAT THIS STUDY, WHICH CAN ONLY SERVE TO FURTHER PROMOTE MILES OF NEW FREEWAYS AS WELL AS THE BRIDGE, IS NOT ONLY COSTLY BUT GLARINGLY PREMATURE, COMING AS IT DOES PRIOR TO THE VOTERS' DECISION ON RAPID TRANSIT."

Thursday evening, through the courtesy of KQED and Cap Weinberger, a question on this bill was submitted during a debate between Senator McAteer, Democrat, San Francisco, and Assemblyman Bagley, Republican, Marin, cosponsors of the second bridge proposal. Senator McAteer replied, with Assemblyman Bagley nodding vigorous agreement, that the second bridge was needed to carry rapid transit because the Golden Gate Bridge could not.

Whatever the reasons for these opponents wanting another several hundred million dollar example of "progress" across the Bay and into some of Marin's most beautiful areas, they have made a most serious error in contradicting the results of expert engineering research already concluded.

This research, including aerodynamic wind tunnel tests, was conducted by the New York engineering firm of Steinman, Boynton, Gronquist and London, acknowledged as the outstanding authority on bridges in this country, if not in the world. They have designed or consulted on 400 bridges on five continents. This firm's conclusion on the feasibility of placing Rapid Transit on the Golden Gate Bridge was an "unqualified yes."

Therefore, it should be reemphasized that because rapid transit on the Golden Gate Bridge will handle the traffic equivalent of at least two additional automobile bridges, NO second Marin crossing can be remotely justified until a public determination is made on rapid transit. McAteer and Bagley's bill is precisely the kind of fast shuffle decisions that resulted in the San Francisco freeway catastrophe and we are determined that it should not happen in Marin.

Counsel Of Fear Or Of Courage

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

Again we have the conflict before us that our forefathers faced when they added the Bill of Rights to our federal constitution.

On the one hand, the American Legion warns in effect that President Clark Kerr of the University of California has endangered our freedom by having permitted an alleged communist to speak on the U. C. campus. On the other hand, President Kerr not long ago said that the responsibility of a university is not to make ideas safe for students but to make students safe for ideas.

The first is a counsel of fear. In this approach, ideas are treated like infectious diseases. Keep the students away from them, or the students may become sick in their minds. This approach overlooks that in protecting our students from ideas we tend to keep them ignorant and childlike.

The second is a counsel of courage. It is based on a belief that students must be exposed to ideas if they are really to understand and really to make choices between ideas. It offers the students opportunity to grow into maturity.

What sort of a nation do we want—a country of protected childlike adults or a country of grownup people who can stand on their own feet?

Voltaire once wrote, "Liberty of thought is the life of the soul." In other words, he said that without liberty to hear and consider all sorts of ideas, the souls of men will shrivel and die."

This is the theme that Congressman James Roosevelt has chosen for his talk at the American Civil Liberties Union potluck supper meeting at Roger Kent's this Sunday, July 9. Those interested in further development of these thoughts are invited to come to this meeting, either in time for the potluck at 5:30 p.m., or in time for the talk and question period which begins sharply at 8 p.m. Please arrive half an hour early to allow time for parking.

TRY AND STOP ME

BENNETT CERF

In a small town in Maine, the sheriff doubles as the vet. In the middle of one cold night he received an emergency call. "Do you want me as sheriff or vet?" he inquired. "Both," came the agitated reply. "We can't get our dog's mouth open—and there's a burglar's rear in it."

Harvard undergraduates and the Cambridge police are old-time feudists. Two riots a year, with a dozen or so high-spirited Harvardites ending up in the hoosegow, are about par for the course.

When Abbott Lowell was president of Harvard, an indignant Cambridge police chief call him up to complain that the students were on the warpath again and blocking all traffic. "Lock your gates," demanded the police chief.

"A fine suggestion," applauded Harvard's suave president politely. "But should I lock the students in or out?"

Civil Defense Now Nothing But Getting County A Share Of Loot

On hearing the glad news that our doughty sheriff Lou Mountanos had consented to add the burdens of civil defense to his already multitudinous duties, I felt certain (as was no doubt the case with the sheriff himself) whether to laugh or cry.

In this state of bridelike indecision I repaired to an easy chair beneath our Mill Valley live oaks and allowed the hi-fi loudspeaker to solace me with the refrain of a calypso song about the atom bomb.

Plans of the singer are precise:

"I'm gonna run, run, run like a son-of-a-gun.
I dunno where I'm goin' to go
But I' really gonna run . . ."

If you happen to be in Bermuda when the atom bombs start to drop, you will have a congenial travel companion.

If in Marin, be our Mill Valley guest. We can look over at the Mount Tamalpais radar station where Sheriff Lou will probably be stationed with a baseball bat, alert to fend off what may come.

BUT FRANKLY, the atom bomb is already old hat. It rides on those old-fashioned things called—what are they? —oh yes, bombing airplanes. These are dead as the battleship though, like the battleship, still around at taxpayers' expense.

Civil defense got to be mightly simple when the intercontinental ballistic missile was finally varnished up and set on the shelf to dry.

From them on, the bosses of civil defense everywhere, having just realized they should have sent their volunteer plane spotters back to bird watching 10 years before, concluded they were perilously near to being out of work, though of course not out of jobs.

When the intercontinental ballistic missiles start whizzing, you'll go nowhere. You won't have time. Just disintegrate right where you are.

BUT IT IS a great error, as Alan Bruce found out, to think that civil defense has become as simple as Simon.

Marin County can still get in on some loot. It is highly necessary that somebody see we get our share of "civil defense" paper clips, refrigerators, and most likely bubble gum.

I never figured the economics or the common sense of this particular boondoggle, and I don't think Bruce did. Our sheriff probably won't try, being mainly the do-or-die type. If he doesn't waste time on such efforts he will live longer.

Barring, that is, some fool pressing some button to start the i.b.m. salvos.

WASHINGTON STILL calls for bombproofs, which won't do any good in Washington or in Marin, and I for one am just as glad time has run that far out. Who wants to go underground and finally come up to see, briefly, the altered face of our county and the world?

In their secret hearts most of us are probably willing to let it go at that if worst ever actually comes to worst—almost unthinkable but (such is man's talent) now possible.

General Taylor Is A Welcome, Overdue Addition To White House

WASHINGTON — The reasons behind Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor's appointment as the President's personal military assistant make the choice welcome and reassuring.

After the painful experience of the Cuban invasion, after the backing and filling about what to do in Laos, and in light of Premier Khrushchev's reckless heating of the cold war, President Kennedy is putting General Taylor into the top councils of his White House staff. This is good because the reasons are good:

1—TAYLOR HAS HAD "crisis experience" in government. That is the one thing the President most needs and wants. That is the one thing which his present White House aides have least of.

That is one thing which Taylor has most of—as a brilliant commander in World War II and on one occasion as an intelligence operator behind the Nazi lines, as supreme commander in Korea, and as Chief of Staff of the Army.

Taylor has been tried under fire in the hot war and in the cold war and has never lost his head.

2—SINCE VIRTUALLY every crucial international issue with which the President is dealing (from Berlin, Laos, Vietnam, to the strengthening of NATO and the decision on nuclear testing) involves large military factors Kennedy wants experienced military judgment available to him on his own staff.

He is mindful that General Eisenhower brought this kind of experience to the White House from his own background. In naming Taylor to his staff, Kennedy is appointing the experience which he himself does not possess.

3—The most anxious, delicate, riskful, and vital matter before the President is the safety of West Berlin and how to shield it from the threats and thrusts of the Kremlin.

On this issue Taylor is an "old Berlin hand." He was commander of American Armed Forces in Germany and commandant of West Berlin from 1949 to 1951. He was Chief of Staff of the Army in Washington during the long psychological putsch which Khrushchev conducted against West Berlin from 1958 to 1960.

As Taylor takes up his post at the White House this week, the President will be getting not only "crisis experience" generally, but Berlin crisis experience specifically.

IF THE CRISIS-experience and seasoned-under-fire judgment of Gen. Taylor are needed now to temper the overload of theory-experienced aides, they were needed five months ago. But there is no sure training school for Presidents except being President and the fact that Kennedy has discerned his need and chosen so well to fill it is most reassuring.

There is no doubt that the bad handling of the Cuban invasion from the beginning to end sharpened the President's awareness that he needed something he didn't have.

Taylor is an activist. He is not timid but he is prudent. He will help to bring the "cold and fishy eye" to the councils of the White House.

Lucas Valley Burglar Makes Self At Home

Someone had his own little Fourth of July party at a Lucas Valley home Monday afternoon — but the affair was classed legally as a possible burglary.

Timothy Magee, 18, who lives at the house, told officers this is what apparently happened:

Whoever broke in the home at 758 Appleberry Drive between 2 and 4 p.m. Monday went first to the ice box. He opened a can of beer, took a glass from the cupboard, a handful of cookies, and relaxed in the front room. After finishing the goodies he went into a bedroom, dumped some change out of a personal bank and scattered it around.

Magee said he left the house about 2 p.m. and had left the garage door unlocked. He said his mother, Mrs. Janice B. Magee, and his sisters were gone at the time. Magee told deputies he returned at about 4:30 p.m. to find the party's aftermath.

New Exec Secretary Of Catholic Services

Sister Martina Jussell has replaced Sister Elfrieda Stitz as executive secretary of Catholic Social Service for Marin County, according to announcement by Rev. John J. O'Hare, executive director.

Sister Martina previously served in the same capacity for Solano County. Sister Elfrieda has been transferred to the Stanford Home for Girls in Sacramento.

Back In The Saddle For Blind Rider

NETCONG, N.J. (AP)— Robert Card, 27, has refused to let his blindness stop him from engaging in the business he likes best— riding horses.

Card is a former show horse jockey who managed his own riding stable.

An auto accident took his sight three year ago and he sold his stock. Subsequently he learned how to be a machine operator.

Now he's confident he can operate a riding stable again and has been given a concession at an amusement park near here. He's to lead children on rides around the pony ring.

ALMANAC

Today is Wednesday, July 5, the 196th day of the year with 179 more to follow in 1961.

The moon is in its last quarter.

The morning stars are Venus, Jupiter and Saturn.

The evening stars are Mars, Jupiter and Saturn.

On this day in history:

In 1865 William Booth founded the Salvation Army in London.

In 1935, President Franklin D. Roosevelt signed the National Labor Relations Act, one of the most far-reaching attempts designed to adjust labor relations in the 20th century.

In 1945, Gen. Douglas MacArthur announced the Philippine Islands had been taken and the campaign there was closed.

In 1960, the United States filed a formal protest on the seizure of U.S. oil refineries in Cuba by Fidel Castro.

A thought for today: Gen. Douglas MacArthur said before the Republican National Convention in 1952, referring to the Korean Conflict: "It is fatal to enter any war without the will to win it."

Opening lead — ♣ Q

South wins the first club with the king, and naturally tries the spadef inesse first. This loses to the king, and back comes a club to the ace.

Declarer leads a trump to the queen and ruffs a club. Then he leads a trump to the ace and leads dummy's last club. East discards a heart or a diamond, and South ruffs.

If East had held four clubs, South was going to discard a heart on the last club. East would win the trick but would then have to lead a red suit, giving dummy a free finesse.

Now South must tackle the red suits by himself. He will make the game if West has the king of diamonds or the ace of hearts. Which red suit should South lead first?

NOT OBVIOUS

The choice is not obvious. If South leads a heart, his contract depends solely on the location of the ace of hearts. Whenever East has the ace of hearts, the defenders take three heart tricks, defeating the contract.

South has two chances for the contract if he starts by trying the diamond finesse. If the finesse works, he can discard a heart on the ace of diamonds. If the diamond finesse loses, East returns a diamond to the ace. South gets rid of a heart, ruffs a diamond and leads a heart. He will still make the contract if the ace of hearts is in the West hand. In short, South succeeds if West has either the king of diamonds or the ace of hearts.

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE — Here's how to work it:

A X Y D L B A A X R
is L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophies, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

Meet California's 'Big Daddy' Unruh

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — "Big Daddy" Unruh is a politician every Californian should know.

Because "Big Daddy" — Assemblyman Jesse M. Unruh of Los Angeles — has emerged from the 1961 session of the legislature as the most powerful Democrat in the state. No one has stepped forward to challenge his leadership.

Republicans claim he is the closest thing to a party boss in California history. And they say he probably could take Gov. Edumund C. Brown to task if he were of such a mind.

Unruh said in an interview that he will not run for governor in 1962, that he agrees with Brown's moderate views and will wholeheartedly support Brown for re-election. The governor has not yet announced that he will run.

As to being a party boss, Unruh says the historic meaning of this title "puts over emphasis on brute power. You can't scare or push these guys around. If you do, eventually you'll make enough enemies so they'll gang up on you."

Big Daddy says he relies mainly on "Reciprocation and friendship" when he is settling legislative problems and political situations of friends.

A good illustration of this occurred during the 1961 legislature when Unruh persuaded a friend in the senate to help pass a bill he wanted. Later, when the senate friend wanted a bill passed in the assembly, he told Unruh. Within 10 minutes, the bill was approved in the lower house.

Failure to reciprocate brings just as swift action. When Unruh's bill creating new Los Angeles judgships was stalled in a Senate committee, outraged Big Daddy got his ways and means committee to stop 65 Senate bills. Then he sat back and waited for his judges bill to move before reviving them.

Unruh gained his power by having things others want. His ways and means committee, which handles all money bills, put him in a key position for trading favors. He branched into campaign financing by using his own excess funds to help deserving friends and later become a major source of campaign money by collecting it from lobbyists and other campaign fund sources and apportioning it to democratic candidates.

His latest bid for power is the speakership of the Assembly. Although the job is not yet open, Unruh claims up to 60 of the 80 Assembly votes for the post.

As speaker in the 1962 budget session, Unruh will parcel out committee chairmanships and membership to all assemblymen. He can juggle the political and idealistic makeup of any and all committees so they are sure to perform as he wishes.

A bear of a man at 275 pounds, Unruh grins but doesn't say much about the title "Big Daddy." It stems from a popular movie a few years ago in which actor Burl Ives played the roll of a barrel-bodied, powerful patriarch of a Southern family. Friends and enemies alike thought Ives' movie name "Big Daddy" fit Unruh.

As to his personal ambitions, Unruh says he has none except to be a good speaker. A friend says Unruh lives each day as it comes, and if he gets a break tomorrow, you can be sure he will hesitate to take it.

The friend says abolition of cross filing on both party tickets in California caused a trend toward more party responsibility and pointed up a need for leadership.

"A number of Democrats have the ability to do the job," he said, "but only Unruh stepped in to be the lonely man at the top—the guy who made the decisions even if it created some enemies and tried to keep them in line on administration and party issues."

Unruh says, "I'm not a timetable politician at all. I have no feelings of having a particular goal in mind insofar as myself is concerned, but I do have some general feelings as far as the Democratic Party is concerned.

"I think a strong, well disciplined party is necessary to carry out a program. Radicals could pull us off balance and make us unacceptable to the people, but I want to maintain moderate, fair-minded leadership to maintain interest in the Democratic party as a forward-looking, progressive force that is balanced by responsibility."

Unruh's scratching for more power and new heights is a habit he acquired early. His family was German-American Mennonites who migrated four times in five generations to avoid military conscription.

His father, an illiterate, broke with the church and settled in a "God's little acre" type area of Texas. Jesse was the only one of six children who finished high school. He did it with the highest scholastic average of any male student and went a year to Wayland Baptist College, Texas, on a scholarship.

Unruh went into the Navy in 1942 and married Virginia Lemon, a graduate of the University of Southern California. After the war, he studied journalism and political science at USC and graduated in 1948 as one of the five outstanding students in his class. The Unruhs have five children, four boys and a girl.

Unruh has worked for Lockheed Aircraft and the U.S. Census Bureau. He was elected to the Assembly in 1954. He campaigned for Governor Brown in 1958, was appointed chairman of ways and means committee in 1959, and headed President John F. Kennedy's California campaign in 1960.

Despite his phenomenal rise in the Democratic Party, Unruh remains a man of moderate means. He is looking for a job to bolster his $600 a month legislative salary. He wants a business.

He also is moving this week into a new, larger home on the edge of Inglewood on which he is paying a "large" mortgage. The move became necessary when Unruh purposedly, to help a friend, alienated a huge number of voters in his own district in the fight over reapportionment.

As a result, he had to move his own district in the reapportionment and then move his family into it.
